FIGHT FOR MISSISSIPPI STATE

CHAMPIONS

DAN MULLEN

"I love expectations. We are building a winning tradition. This is just the foundation. I am excited about the future at Mississippi State." — Dec. 31, 2013

- Guided MSU to four consecutive bowls, a first in the 114-year history of the program
- Owns the most bowl victories of any coach in school history (three)
- Ranks third all-time in MSU winning percentage among coaches who have coached for more than four seasons (.563)
- Owns the highest winning percentage by an MSU coach overall since 1956 (.563)
- Already ranks fourth overall in MSU all-time wins (36)
- Became the quickest MSU coach to 35 victories (63 games) since College Football Hall of Famer Allyn McKeen in 1942
- Posted a 4-1 mark in Egg Bowl games against rival Ole Miss
- Spearheaded the MSU offense to seven team statistical records in 2013
- Helped MSU improve its NCAA Football Academic Progress Rate every year, including the SEC's fourth-highest football score (974)
- Produced 90 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients during his tenure

HAIL DEAR OL' STATE,
FIGHT FOR THAT VICTORY TODAY,
HIT THAT LINE AND TOTE THAT BALL
CROSS THE GOAL BEFORE YOU FALL
AND THEN WE'LL YELL,
YELL YELL YELL!
FOR DEAR OL' STATE WE'LL YELL LIKE H-E-L-L,
FIGHT FOR MISSISSIPPI STATE
WIN THAT GAME TODAY!

DAN MULLEN

HEAD COACH
SIXTH SEASON

Now entering his sixth season, Dan Mullen has spearheaded Mississippi State to unprecedented sustained success and reenergized the Bulldog fan base in the process. The MSU faithful have gone on to watch the head coach lead the Maroon and White to four-straight bowl games for the first time in the 114-year history of the program. Just five years into his tenure, Mullen (36-28, .563) owns the highest winning percentage as a coach at State since the late Darrell Royal in 1954-55 (.600), and he is already fourth in school history for wins by a MSU head coach (36). Mullen stands just one victory away from entering the top four.

Mullen became the MSU all-time leader in bowl game victories with three when the Bulldogs trounced Rice 44-7 in the 2013 AutoZone Liberty Bowl. On top of that, Mullen has dominated the Egg Bowl rivalry (4-1), owning the second-highest winning percentage (.800) against Ole Miss. Mullen (63 games) was the quickest Bulldog coach to 35 career wins since Allyn McKeen in 1942. He ranks third all-time in MSU winning percentage among coaches who have coached more than four seasons.

From the moment of his introduction on Dec. 10, 2008, as the 32nd head coach in school history, supporters have turned out in record numbers and capacity crowds to support the Bulldogs.

Mississippi State fans have sold out a school-record 30 consecutive home games at Davis Wade Stadium entering the 2014 season. Each of the last four years has seen the school's attendance record broken, including the 389,868 who packed into the stadium during the 2013 season. In fact, 19 of the school's top 20 crowds have occurred in the last five seasons, with all seven crowds in 2013 ranking in the top 25 all-time.

Mullen was widely regarded as one of the top young minds in college football when he arrived at Mississippi State, and he brought not only an impressive offensive resume and a list of NFL-developed quarterbacks, but also an energy and passion for the college game.

Under Mullen's guidance, the 2013 MSU offense went down as one of the most prolific in school history. The Bulldogs shattered school records for total yards (5,647), yards per game (434.4), passing yards (3,178), first downs (305), completions (253), passing yards per game (244.5) and completion percentage (59.0). Mullen also helped develop Dak Prescott into one of the top signal callers in school history as the sophomore shattered the school record for rushing yards by a quarterback (829) and registered the third-highest total offense mark in school history (2,769).

As a team, MSU showed constant improvement and went on an inspiring three-game winning streak to close the 2013 season despite a rash of injuries. After a hard-fought game against No. 1 Alabama on Nov. 16, the Bulldogs bounced back a week later with their first victory ever at Arkansas. Then on a cold Thanksgiving night, Mullen continued his dominance of the Egg Bowl rivalry as MSU, on a gutsy final drive engineered by an injured Prescott, claimed its fourth Egg Bowl win in five seasons with a 17-10 overtime triumph.

The Bulldogs closed the year racking up a bowl school-record 533 yards to defeat Rice 44-7 in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. The 37-point margin of victory was the largest of the 2013 college bowl season as MSU finished the year with a 7-6 record.

Following the season, offensive guard Gabe Jackson became the 13th NFL Draft selection under Mullen at MSU when Jackson was taken in the third round by the Oakland Raiders. Jackson was a first-team All-American as a senior. In addition, linebacker Deontae Skinner, safety Nickoe Whitley and running back LaDarius Perkins signed NFL free agent contracts.

Mullen ignited the Bulldogs to a nine-win season in just his second year, 2010, and then another successful season in 2011. With Mullen's masterful offensive mind, the Maroon and White broke the school records for six different offensive categories in 2012, including passing touchdowns in a season (28) and scoring (383).

In 2010, State won six games in a row in the middle of the season and finished among the top 10 in school history in the following categories - passing yardage, completion percentage, passing touchdowns, rushing attempts, rushing yards, rushing touchdowns, total plays, total offensive yards, per-game offense and first downs. The defense also amassed the 10th-highest sack total in school annals.

The 2010 Bulldogs closed out the season with nine victories including posting the largest margin of victory in a bowl game in school history. The resounding 52-14 Gator Bowl win against Michigan capped a truly remarkable year.

With the nation's toughest schedule in 2009, State's rushing attack, led by first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection and current NFL running back Anthony Dixon, finished ninth nationally with a 227.6 rushing yard average per game. State averaged 371.9 yards of total offense per game, the ninth-highest total in school history and the most since 2000 at the time.

Mullen's first season concluded with a rousing 41-27 victory over MSU's in-state rival, which brought the Golden Egg back to Starkville. He became the only the third Mississippi State coach to win his Egg Bowl debut since 1939, joining Allyn McKeen and Jackie Sherrill. The Bulldogs posted a 5-7 overall record in 2009, including three road victories.

During the previous four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Florida, Mullen molded a Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien and Maxwell Award-winning quarterback, along with a Rimington Trophy finalist and a Biletnikoff Award semifinalist.

In 2008 alone, Mullen's offensive attack ranked third nationally in scoring – averaging better than 45 points per game as the Gators scored at least 30 points in 12-of-13 games. The 587 points scored eclipsed the previous Florida mark, set in 1996.

Florida rushed for a school-record 41 touchdowns that season and UF's 80 rushing touchdowns over the two seasons ranked second nationally Overall, Florida's rushing yardage of 2,987 ranked ninth nationally in 2008 and was the third-highest total in school history.

Seven offensive players were recognized as All-SEC selections following the season in which Mullen helped UF claim its second SEC Championship and a chance to play for its second national championship in three seasons.

The Gator offense ranked first in the SEC in scoring offense and total offense for a second-straight season in 2008, averaging 45.2 points and 442.4 yards per game. Under Mullen's tutelage in 2007, UF averaged 42.5 points and 457.2 yards.

In 2007, Mullen directed the Gator offense to the third-highest point total ever by a UF unit and the top single-season marks for rushing touchdowns and third-down conversion percentage. Florida's offense scored 75 touchdowns, second most in the SEC.

Mullen orchestrated a UF attack that was the only one in the nation to have rushed for a touchdown and passed for a touchdown in every game during the season. He also helped UF score on 83-of-152 drives in 2007 for a league-best 54.6 percent, marking the best number since the stat was tracked by the SEC in 2000. Florida additionally averaged 7.0 yards per play that year, the fourth-best total in the nation. Lastly, the Gators averaged 5.3 yards per rush, the second-best number in school history.

In 2007, Mullen helped coach sophomore quarterback Tim Tebow into a Heisman Trophy, Maxwell and Davey O'Brien award winner, 78th Sullivan Award winner and Associated Press First-Team All-American among other honors.

He also tutored six offensive players to the All-SEC team: Tebow, NFL Pro Bowler Percy Harvin, Cornelius Ingram, Brandon James, Jim Tartt and Drew Miller.

Mullen played an integral role in Florida's 2006 national championship, overseeing an offense that averaged 29.7 points and 396.1 yards per game. In the BCS National Championship Game, he engineered an attack that produced 41 points against a top-ranked Ohio State squad that was limiting opponents to less than 11 points per game on the year. Under Mullen's tutelage, quarterback Chris Leak opened the contest by going 9-for-9 for 99 yards and a touchdown en route to earning Offensive MVP honors.

The 2006 Gator offense posted 76 plays of 20 yards or more, 19 of which went for touchdowns. Florida passed for 29 touchdowns in 2006, while Leak ranked among the national leaders with 23 scoring tosses. Tebow matched UF's then single-season record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback with eight scores, and his 5.3 yards per carry average placed second nationally among signal callers. Six different players averaged at least 5.0 yards per carry.

GRADUATION SUCCESS

Head coach Dan Mullen joins football graduates from the 2014 spring semester. Under Mullen, MSU has improved its NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) every year, including a program-best 974 released in May.

In 2005, Chad Jackson played his way to Biletnikoff Award semifinalist status after matching the UF single-season record with 88 receptions, a figure that led the SEC and finished sixth nationally. Center Mike Degory was also named a finalist for the Rimington Trophy, given annually to the nation's top center, during that campaign. Both earned first-team All-SEC honors under Mullen's tutelage.

Mullen went to Florida from Utah with head coach Urban Meyer, with whom he had spent 10 seasons. While the quarterbacks coach at Utah, Mullen developed current NFL standout Alex Smith – the first overall selection in the 2005 NFL Draft – from a pocket passer into an efficient executor of the spread, making him one of the most versatile threats in college football. Smith took over the starting job three games into Mullen's tenure, passing for 2,247 yards and running for 452 to finish second in the Mountain West in total offense in 2003.

The 2004 campaign saw Smith earn National Player of the Year honors from The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated, while also becoming Utah's first-ever Heisman Trophy finalist. Smith also garnered final consideration for the Davey O'Brien and Walter Camp National Player of the Year Awards. Smith passed for 2,952 yards and 32 touchdowns and ran for 631 yards and 10 scores on the year, ranking second in the nation with a 176.5 efficiency rating and leading the Utes to a perfect 12-0 season and a Fiesta Bowl championship. As a team, Utah finished the 2004 season third in the nation in scoring offense (45.3) and total offense (499.8).

Prior to his stint at Utah, Mullen served as quarterbacks' coach at Bowling Green for two seasons, putting up 6,627 yards of total offense and scoring 81 touchdowns during that span. In 2002, quarterback Josh Harris threw for 2,425 yards, ran for 737 yards and completed the campaign as the nation's third-leading scorer.

Mullen spent the two years before his Bowling Green stint as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, and before that assisted with Syracuse's 1998 BIG EAST championship and Orange Bowl run.

Off the field, Mullen's players are constant achievers in the classroom and the community donating countless hours to the Starkville area and state of Mississippi. Eighteen Bulldogs were named to the SEC Winter Academic Honor Roll in 2013. During Mullen's entire five-year tenure at MSU, 90 players have earned the distinction of SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient.

The 42-year-old has helped the program improve its NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) every year in his tenure, including most recently the SEC's fourth-best football APR with a score of 974. MSU is the only SEC football program to improve its NCAA APR score every year since the formula's inception.

A two-year starter at tight end for Ursinus College in Collegeville, Pa., Mullen earned first-team All-Centennial Conference honors as a senior.

He is married to the former Megan West, and the couple has two children, one son (Canon) and one daughter (Breelyn).

The Mullen's created the Mullen Family 36 Foundation, raising more than $250,000 for charity in the last two years. The foundation has impacted the lives of 36 different children's charities throughout the state of Mississippi.

GEOFF COLLINS

Defensive Coordinator/ Linebackers

Fourth season at MSU

@CoachCollins

Coined the "Minister of Mayhem," Geoff Collins comes into his second season as the MSU full-time defensive coordinator preaching defensive mayhem to his troops. Collins came to Mississippi State in 2011 as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach after putting together a remarkable resume during stints at Florida International and UCF.

In Collins' first season as full-time defensive coordinator, MSU boasted one of the Southeastern Conference's top units. The 2013 Bulldogs ranked in the SEC's top five statistically in total defense (fourth - 349.3 ypg), rushing defense (fourth - 144.2 ypg), third down defense (fourth - 35.0 percent), pass defense (fifth - 205.2) and interceptions (fifth - 14).

Collins' crew got stronger as the season went on. MSU held its final three opponents to an average of 11.3 points per game, including two contests that featured overtime stands. The Bulldogs earned their first victory ever at Arkansas, forcing two fumbles and collecting seven tackles for losses. Less than a week later, the Egg Bowl trophy remained in Starkville as the MSU defense held Ole Miss to 10 points, highlighted by one of the most memorable plays in school history. All-SEC safety Nickoe Whitley stripped quarterback Bo Wallace to prevent a game-tying score in overtime and preserve the Bulldogs' fourth Egg Bowl victory in five seasons.

MSU then shut down one of the nation's most prolific offenses in a 44-7 win over Rice in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. The Owls entered the contest with a rushing offense ranked in the top 10 nationally. Rice gained only 61 yards rushing -- 179 below its season average -- on 32 carries against MSU.

In three seasons, Collins has sent two Bulldogs from his linebacker position to the NFL. Cameron Lawrence signed as a free agent with the Dallas Cowboys in 2013. Whitley (Cleveland) and linebacker Deontae Skinner (New England) agreed to free agent contracts following the 2014 NFL Draft.

After being given the opportunity to call plays during the 2013 Gator Bowl, the Collins-led defense had one of its best defensive performances of the year. A three-interception day with two tackles for loss, four pass breakups and two quarterback hurries gave fans a small taste of what to expect in year one with Collins getting the full-time gig.

In 2012, Collins led two linebackers to place in the top seven in the SEC in total tackles: All-SEC selection Lawrence (120) and freshman All-American Benardrick McKinney (102). Lawrence became the first Bulldog with 100-plus tackles in back-to-back seasons since 1994-95, while McKinney tied for second in the country in total tackles by a freshman and seventh overall in the SEC. With State not having had two players in the top 10 in the SEC in tackles since 1997, Collins has accomplished the feat in two of his first three seasons in Starkville.

Collins immediately raised the bar at linebacker for the MSU squad in 2011, coaching Lawrence to 123 total tackles, ranking top five in the SEC. In addition, former walk-on Brandon Wilson reached 94 tackles under Collins' tutelage.

In his last year before joining the Bulldogs, Collins' FIU defensive unit led the Sun Belt in total defense, scoring defense, pass efficiency defense and turnover margin; all a remarkable accomplishment for a group that finished 119th nationally in total defense and 111th in scoring defense in 2009. The Panthers' sack totals nearly doubled, and the pass defense improved from 108th nationally to 32nd in 2010. For his efforts, Collins was a finalist for the Broyles Award - given annually to the nation's top assistant coach.

Collins made the move to FIU after a pair of seasons as the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at UCF. In his first season in Orlando, Collins helped UCF's defense rank second in Conference USA in total and scoring defense. Before joining the Knights' staff, Collins spent a year as the director of player personnel at Alabama.

The previous year at Georgia Tech, Collins' efforts led to the Yellow Jackets' best recruiting class in their storied history.

In 2002, Collins became the defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach at his alma mater, Western Carolina, and inherited one of the worst defensive units statistically in the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision. In 2003, under Collins' direction, the Catamount defense emerged as one of the best in the nation.

In 2005, the Western Carolina defense was ranked No. 1 nationally in pass defense along with being ranked 18th nationally in total defense. Collins' unit also finished ranked first in the Southern Conference in total defense and pass defense along with several other defensive categories.

Prior to returning to Western Carolina, Collins spent three years with current UCF head coach George O'Leary at Georgia Tech. Collins began his career on the Flats as the defensive graduate assistant working with the linebackers in 1999 and with the defensive backs in 2000.

Before his days at Georgia Tech, Collins spent two years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers and secondary coach at Albright College in Reading, Pa. In 1997, the NCAA Division III program boasted the leading defense in its conference and ranked in the top 10 nationally in all defensive categories.

In 1996, Collins served as an assistant coach at Fordham, working with the outside linebackers while also serving as the junior varsity defensive coordinator. He also spent one season (1995) as an assistant coach at Franklin (N.C.) High School while student teaching in the Macon County Public Schools.

During his playing days at Western Carolina, Collins tallied 194 tackles as an outside linebacker and defensive back from 1989-92. He was the team's fifth-leading tackler as a junior with 68, while registering 6.0 tackles for loss. As a senior, he helped Western to a 7-4 record, logging 62 total takedowns and 5.0 tackles for loss. He began his coaching career as a student assistant on the Western Carolina staff in 1993.

A native of Conyers, Ga., who attended Rockdale County High School, Collins earned a bachelor's degree from Western Carolina in sport management and exercise science in 1994. He then completed the education curriculum in 1995. He did postgraduate work in psychology at Fordham University and Georgia Tech.

BILLY GONZALES

Co-Offensive Coordinator/ Passing Game/Wide Receivers

Second season at MSU

@CoachBillyG

Coach Dan Mullen was faced with filling a spot on his coaching staff with the loss of wide receivers coach Tim Brewster following the 2012 season. After a brief search, he found his perfect fit in friend and former coaching cohort Billy Gonzales.

Gonzales was promoted to MSU co-offensive coordinator and passing game coordinator in February 2014. He will also maintain his wide receiver coaching duties during the 2014 season.

Having coached eight combined seasons at Bowling Green, Utah and Florida with Mullen, Gonzales arrived in Starkville with 20 years of college coaching experience and an offensive mindset nearly identical to his boss. Gonzales' resume gleams greatness as he's coached in three BCS National Championship games with Florida and LSU during a six-year span.

Gonzales made an immediate impact in his first season with the Bulldogs as junior wideout Jameon Lewis developed into one of the Southeastern Conference's elite receivers. Lewis ranked sixth in the SEC in receiving yards per game (71.0). He capped the year with an MSU single-game school-record 220 receiving yards in an AutoZone Liberty Bowl victory over Rice.

Gonzales was instrumental to a 2013 MSU offense that shattered single-season school records for total yards (5,647), yards per game (434.4), passing yards (3,178), first downs (305), completions (253), passing yards per game (244.5) and completion percentage (59.0).

Gonzales arrived in Starkville following a one-year stint as co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Illinois. Prior to coaching the Fighting Illini, Gonzales served as the passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach at LSU. During his time in Baton Rouge, Gonzales helped the Tigers to the 2012 BCS National Championship game and the 2011 SEC Championship. His development of Odell Beckham Jr. and Reuben Randle were apparent during the Tigers' season, as he led them to Freshman All-SEC and first-team All-SEC accolades respectively. Both went on the NFL.

Prior to his stint at LSU, Gonzales coached beside Mullen under Urban Meyer at Florida. During his time as wide receivers coach, the Gators' high-octane offense translated to two BCS national championships in 2006 and 2008.

At Florida, Gonzales saw seven players drafted under his command, with his crown jewel being a first-round selection of Percy Harvin in 2009. In addition, Gonzales produced seven All-SEC wide receivers in his five seasons.

During his two seasons at Utah as wide receivers coach and co-special teams coordinator, Gonzales saw the Utes to a 22-2 record and two bowl wins, including a 35-7 thrashing of Pittsburgh in the 2005 Fiesta Bowl. The Utes' offense averaged 499.8 yards and 45.3 points per game, each ranking third in the country in their respective categories. Under Gonzales' watch, three Utah receivers were first-team All-Mountain West: tight end Ben Moa (2003), wide receiver Paris Warren (2003) and wide receiver Steve Savoy (2004).

As a special teams guru, Gonzales led Utah to 28.2 yards per kickoff return in 2003, which was good enough for the nation's lead. Utah was also third in the country in net punting yard (40.8) and fifth in kickoff returns during the 2004 season (26.2)

Gonzales spent the 2001 and 2002 seasons at Bowling Green, serving as wide receivers coach and co-recruiting coordinator. The Falcons were 17-6 in his two years at the school and in 2002, Bowling Green was third in the country in scoring averaging 48 points per game. The Falcon offense also averaged 448.9 yards per game during the 2002 season, ranking ninth in the country. Under Gonzales' direction, wide receiver Robert Redd was an All-MAC selection during the coaches' two years at the school and became the school's all-time leader in receptions.

Gonzales got his first full-time coaching position in Division I in 1997 when he accepted a job at Kent State. During his four-year coaching stint with the Golden Flashes, he coached running backs for his opening season followed by three years as the wide receivers coach. As running backs coach, he led Astron Whatley to three All-MAC selections. As wide receivers coach, Gonzales tutored Eugen Baker to a Third-Team All-American selection as he became the school's all-time leading receiver.

Prior to a full-time coaching job with the Golden Flashes, Gonzales spent two years as a graduate assistant at the school from 1995-96. He earned his master's degree from Kent State in sports administration.

Gonzales broke into the coaching profession in 1994 at MacMurray (Ill.) as wide receivers coach.

A four-year letter winner at Colorado State including two years as starting wide receiver, Gonzales helped the Rams to a 9-4 record during the 1990 season and a win over Oregon in the Freedom Bowl.

JOHN HEVESY

Co-Offensive Coordinator/ Running Game/Offensive Line

Sixth season at MSU

@CoachHevesy

No one can argue with the results put up by John Hevesy's group during his first five years as the Bulldogs' run game coordinator and offensive line coach. In 2014, Hevesy will take over co-offensive coordinator duties in addition to overseeing the running game and offensive line.

The 2013 campaign was a record one for the MSU offense, breaking single-season school records for total yards (5,647), yards per game (434.4) and first downs (305). Under Hevesy's tutelage, senior guard Gabe Jackson became a first-team All-American and a first-team All-Southeastern Conference recipient. He then was selected in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders. Jackson promises to have a lengthy, successful NFL career.

In 2009, the line paved the way as the offense led the SEC and finished ninth nationally in rushing, averaging better than 225 yards per game. One year later, State rushed for 214.8 yards per game and increased total offense numbers. The Bulldogs have eclipsed the 200-yard rushing mark in half of Hevesy's 64 games coached in Starkville.

Senior center Dillon Day comes into 2014 as a preseason candidate for the Rimington Trophy, given annually to the nation's best center. It is his third-consecutive season on the watch list, after being developed into a freshman All-American at the position under the direction of Hevesy in 2011.

In his first two seasons, Hevesy tutored left tackle Derek Sherrod, an All-American selection and a first round pick in the 2011 NFL Draft. Sherrod is now in his third NFL season with the Green Bay Packers.

Hevesy has worked with head coach Dan Mullen for over a decade and came to Mississippi State after four years as a member of the University of Florida coaching staff, where he spent time working with both the tight ends and the offensive line.

Hevesy has coached in four BCS bowls, including Florida's 2006 and 2008 BCS title game victories. Hevesy assisted with a Florida offensive line which allowed only 16.0 sacks in 14 games and paved the way for a rushing attack that averaged more than 231 yards per game.

In 2007, he tutored future NFL tight end Cornelius Ingram. Ingram's seven touchdowns receiving matched Andre Caldwell's team-leading total and Ingram's 14.9 years per reception were the most of any Gator who had double-digit catches. That season, the Gator offensive line surrendered just 13.0 sacks in 13 games, tying for the second-lowest total in the SEC and fifth nationally.

Despite entering the 2006 season with one player having started a game at his opening-day position, the UF offensive line allowed only 23 sacks on the year, and yielded one-or-less sacks seven times during the campaign. Hevesy showed a penchant for molding individual talents on the interior of the Gators' line. Starting centers Mike Degory and Steve Rissler earned first-team All-SEC honors as seniors, and Drew Miller earned honorable mention All-SEC.

As the offensive line coach at Utah in 2004, Hevesy directed the front line for one of the most prolific offenses in the country, as the Utes ranked third nationally in scoring, total offense and passing efficiency. Behind the blocking of Hevesy's group, Utah scored on 62-of-67 trips to the red zone en route to an undefeated season and a victory in a BCS bowl game.

Prior to his arrival in Salt Lake City, Hevesy coached the tackles and tight ends at Bowling Green from 2001-02. In his first year on campus, the line allowed 50 percent fewer sacks than the year before, while the 2002 unit blocked for skill players that amassed more than 5,000 yards of total offense.

During a three-year stint at Brown from 1998-2000, Hevesy coached an offensive line that blocked for 13 school records and saw three of its members earn multiple All-Ivy selections.

TONY HUGHES

Assistant Head Coach/ Safeties/Recruiting Coordinator

Sixth season at MSU

@CoachTonyHughes

A Mississippi native with a wealth of experience coaching in his home state, Tony Hughes coaches safeties in the defensive backfield and also coordinates the Bulldogs' recruiting efforts. In the spring of 2013, Hughes was named assistant head coach for the maroon and white.

Hughes has developed MSU's safeties corps into one of the Southeastern Conference's hardest-hitting units. In 2013, Nickoe Whitley earned second-team All-SEC honors and concluded his career third in MSU career interceptions with 15. Whitley was credited with one of the most memorable plays in school history, forcing a fumble of Ole Miss' Bo Wallace in overtime to seal another Egg Bowl victory for the Bulldogs. Whitley, despite suffering a torn ACL during the play, signed an NFL free agent contract with the Cleveland Browns in the spring of 2014.

In 2010, Hughes tutored Whitley to freshman All-SEC honors. In 2011, Hughes developed Charles Mitchell into one of the top safeties in the SEC with Mitchell getting drafted in the sixth round by the Atlanta Falcons in April 2012.

Hughes came to Mississippi State after spending one season at Southern Miss where he coached the secondary. Prior to that stop, Hughes coached for three seasons at Ole Miss. Named one of the top-25 college football recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com in the spring of 2006, Hughes' first two years were spent tutoring the defensive backs with his final season in Oxford spent working with the tight ends.

Prior to a two-season tenure at Louisiana Tech, Hughes had spent the previous 10 years on the coaching staff at Hinds Community College in Raymond, Miss., where he served as the defensive coordinator for one year and the secondary coach during his first nine seasons. At Hinds, Hughes coached eight players who later went on to the NFL, including former Mississippi State standout Fred Smoot.

Before working at Hinds, Hughes' first college stop as a full-time collegiate coach was a two-year stay at West Alabama, where he was the secondary coach in 1992 and 1993. Hughes coached for seven years in the Mississippi high school ranks, serving as the offensive coordinator and running backs coach at Hattiesburg High School from 1988-1991. Hughes also spent two seasons as the defensive secondary coach and boys track coach at South Natchez High School in 1986 and 1987. His first high school coaching job came at Philadelphia High School in 1985.

After serving in the United States Marine Corps from 1981 to 1984 and receiving an honorable discharge, he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Southern Miss in 1984, working with the defensive backs.

Hughes, who played football and ran track at Forest High School (1974-76) and played defensive back at St. Paul's College (1976-77), was a defensive back for Southern Miss in 1977 and 1978. He earned his bachelor of arts' degree in sociology from there in 1980. He is an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, serving as a member of the Mississippi FCA State Board of Directors in 1999, president of the Mississippi FCA Coaches Council in 1998 and vice-president of the Mississippi FCA Coaches Council in 1997.

BRIAN JOHNSON

Quarterbacks

First season at MSU

@BDJohnson3

Brian Johnson, the winningest quarterback in Utah history and former offensive coordinator for the Utes, begins his first season as quarterbacks coach at Mississippi State.

Johnson, 27, reunites with his former coach Dan Mullen in Starkville. Johnson, then a high school quarterback in Texas, first met Mullen at age 16 during a recruiting visit to Utah. He officially joined the MSU staff in February 2014 and worked exclusively with the Bulldog quarterbacks in spring practice.

Johnson spent the past four seasons as an assistant coach at Utah, including one season as the offensive coordinator and one season as the co-offensive coordinator. He coached quarterbacks since joining the staff in 2010. A rising star in the coaching profession, Johnson became the youngest NCAA FBS offensive coordinator in the nation at age 24 on Feb. 2, 2011.

His fast ascension in coaching has been nothing new for the Baytown, Texas, product. Mullen, then the quarterbacks coach at Utah, signed Johnson to a National Letter of Intent at just 16 years old in 2004. Johnson went on to play in 10 games as a true freshman backup to Heisman Trophy finalist Alex Smith during Utah's 12-0 Fiesta Bowl season.

The next spring, he became Utah's starting quarterback at age 17. In January 2010, a year after breaking the school record for wins by a starting quarterback (26), Johnson accepted a position as Utah's quarterbacks coach.

Two years in that role was enough time to convince head coach Kyle Whittingham to appoint Johnson as the new offensive coordinator. In 2013, Johnson had the opportunity to work alongside former three-time Pac-10 Conference Coach of the Year Dennis Erickson as co-offensive coordinator.

Each of Johnson's first three seasons was defined by injuries at the quarterback position. Starter Jordan Wynn was injured for part or most of every season and Johnson inserted three different replacements from 2010-12. In both 2010 and 2011, Utah recovered to earn a bowl bid (Las Vegas Bowl and Sun Bowl).

With an eye to the future, Johnson anointed true freshman Travis Wilson the starting quarterback for the final seven games of the 2012 season. He also turned to the run game, implementing a game plan that allowed senior John White to net 1,041 yards and become the first Ute ever to produce back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Utah led the Pac-12 in time of possession, holding the ball an average of 32:07 a game.

As a player, Johnson was a three-year starter and a two-time bowl most valuable player. He set the school mark for victories by a starting quarterback, finishing his career with a 26-7 record. A finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm and the Manning awards as a senior in 2008, Johnson captained Utah to the best record in school history (13-0) and a Sugar Bowl victory over Alabama. The Sugar Bowl MVP tossed for 336 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Utes to a dominant 31-17 win over the fourth-ranked Tide.

For his career, Johnson threw for 7,853 yards and 57 touchdowns as well as running for 848 yards and 12 scores. He gained even more acclaim when EA Sports put him on the cover of its 2010 NCAA Football video game.

Johnson and his wife, Ashley, are the proud parents of a baby girl, Rossi, born in June 2014.

GREG KNOX

Defensive Backs/Special Teams Coordinator

Sixth season at MSU

@CoachKnox_MSU

With a hotbed of talent to coach at running back, Greg Knox has molded raw backs into All-Southeastern Conference talent and pros, coaching three starting running backs to the NFL.

Knox adds a new title to his SEC resume in the spring of 2014 as special teams coordinator.

Knox enters his sixth season on coach Dan Mullen's staff after a record-breaking offensive year in 2013. The Bulldogs broke school records in total yards (5,647), yards per game (434.4) and first downs (305). Senior running back LaDarius Perkins capped his career as the fifth-leading rusher in school history with 2,554 career yards. Perkins then signed a free agent NFL contract in the spring of 2014 with the Green Bay Packers.

With Knox's help in 2012, Perkins finished the regular season fourth in the SEC in rushing and second in the league in all-purpose yards. Through the first half of the 2012 campaign, Perkins was one of only two players nationally with a rushing touchdown through his first seven games.

Knox also mentored Anthony Dixon, the current Buffalo Bill, during his senior season. Dixon rushed for a school-record 1,391 yards and found the end zone 12 times. But it wasn't only the All-SEC tailback who thrived under Knox's guidance, as the running backs combined for more than 2,000 yards as the Bulldogs led the conference in rushing yards.

Knox's second season may have been an even greater coaching feat. Without a proven commodity like Dixon, the Bulldog offense used several different backs to accomplish nearly the same thing. Newcomer Vick Ballard burst onto the scene and broke the 58-year-old school record for rushing touchdowns in a single season (19). Knox continued to coach Ballard for his senior season in 2011, when Ballard rewrote the school record book for running backs and went on to be drafted in the fifth round by the Indianapolis Colts in the 2012 NFL Draft.

Prior to his arrival at Mississippi State, Knox spent his last 14 seasons coaching in the SEC and nearly 20 years coaching offense on the collegiate level. He came to Mississippi State following a 14-year stretch as Tommy Tuberville's wide receivers coach at both Ole Miss and Auburn. Knox was also the recruiting coordinator for the last 13 of those seasons.

A veteran of 12 postseason bowl games, Knox helped lead the Auburn offense to the top of the SEC in scoring in both 2004 and 2005. He has tutored six players selected in the NFL Draft.

He helped Ole Miss reach the 1997 Motor City Bowl, and was part of Auburn coaching staffs that finished football seasons in the 2001 Citrus and Peach Bowls, 2003 Capital One and Music City Bowls, the 2005 Sugar Bowl, the 2006 Capital One Bowl, and the 2007 Cotton and Chick-fil-A Bowls.

Of the eight players who he has had selected in the NFL Draft, three came in just two years while at Auburn (Courtney Taylor in 2007, and Ben Obomanu and Devin Aromashodu in 2006). Knox helped Taylor become the school's all-time leader in receptions, and Obomanu finished second in touchdown receptions.

After earning his bachelor's degree while playing quarterback for Northeastern State, Knox began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1988. Knox spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Northeastern State and two at TCU before being named to the staff at Stephen F. Austin in 1992.

In three seasons on the Lumberjacks' staff as the receivers and special teams coach, Knox helped a program that had won only three games in the previous two seasons to the 1993 FCS playoffs and a top-25 ranking the following season.

A native of Rosebud, Texas, Knox is married to the former Toralyn Foster, and the couple has three sons: Gregory, Torian and Tyson.

SCOTT SALLACH

Tight Ends

Sixth season at MSU

@CoachSallach

Scott Sallach was hired in 2009 by his former teammate, head coach Dan Mullen, to coach tight ends for the Bulldogs' offense after spending the previous 11 seasons in the Ivy League.

Wasting no time, Sallach helped tight end Marcus Green learn the spread attack in 2009 and in his first season, Green finished second on the team with 27 receptions for 306 yards. In 2010, Green was injured early in the year so Sallach had to lean on a less-experienced cast. Brandon Henderson had his most productive season, and Kendrick Cook, Thomas Webb and younger players each stepped up on gameday and in practice.

In 2011, Sallach coached All-Southeastern Conference freshman phenom Malcolm Johnson, who finished tied for second on the team in touchdowns and managed a team-high 18.7 yards per catch (min. 10 receptions). For the third time in his career, Johnson has been named to the watch list for the Mackey Award, presented annually to the nation's top tight end. Johnson was a second-team All-SEC selection as a junior after racking up 390 yards receiving in 2013.

In 2012, with Johnson sidelined for the first half of the year, Sallach continued to develop Green's game, with the redshirt senior finishing with a career-high six touchdowns. Green's six scores placed him in the top five in reception touchdowns by a tight end, while his five in conference play tied him for third among tight ends in the country. His performance during the first part of the season put him on the list for the Mackey Award by midseason. Under Sallach's direction in 2012, Green was the only tight end in the country to be named Mackey Player of the Week twice.

A veteran of more than 18 years coaching on the collegiate level, Sallach came to Mississippi State after a six-year stint at Princeton, where he coached wide receivers and quarterbacks.

He added the title of passing game coordinator prior to the 2008 season. During his time at the Ivy League school, he oversaw two of the top four career passing yardage totals and two of the best five season passing yardage efforts as passing game coordinator. He coached two of the top seven all-time receivers at Princeton, and in his six seasons coached nine allleague performers, one of whom was named an All-American.

Before his stop at Princeton, Sallach worked at Dartmouth College for five seasons (1998-2002), Monmouth for three seasons (1995-97) and Hamilton College for one season (1994). At Dartmouth, he coached the wide receivers while assisting with the special teams, specializing in kickoffs and kickoff returns.

During his tenure with the Big Green, the teams set school records for completions in a game and season, and passing yards in a season. His instruction assisted a Dartmouth receiver in becoming the institution's all-time top pass-catcher for a single game, a season and a career. Sallach also tutored the school's single season leader in kickoff returns. While at Dartmouth, Sallach's receivers posted five of the school's best six single-game receiving totals, the top two single-game and career receivers, and two of the top three career receiving yardage leaders.

DESHEA TOWNSEND

Cornerbacks

Second season at MSU

@DesheaTownsend

With over 20 years playing elite-level football, Deshea Townsend begins his second season as cornerbacks coach at Mississippi State after a successful NFL career.

The Mississippi-bred Townsend returned home to make his collegiate coaching debut as cornerbacks coach prior to the 2013 season. It was his first full-time coaching position after two seasons as a member of the Arizona Cardinals staff. In 2010, he finished a 13-year All-Pro NFL career where he won two Super Bowls.

In his first season at MSU, Townsend spearheaded one of the top cornerback units in the Southeastern Conference. The Bulldogs ranked fifth in the league in passing defense, allowing 205.2 yards through the air. In addition, MSU was one of only three SEC schools to feature three players in the league's top eight in interceptions. Starting cornerbacks Jamerson Love and Taveze Calhoun registered three picks apiece and both return in 2014.

Prior to joining the MSU staff, Townsend served two seasons as an assistant defensive backs coach under Louie Cioffi with the Arizona Cardinals.

Townsend was a decorated football player as he played at an elite level each step of the way. As a 13-year pro cornerback, Townsend played in nearly 191 games, starting 80. He racked up 428 tackles (359 solo), 21 interceptions, 15.5 sacks, five fumble recoveries, four forced fumbles and three defensive touchdowns.

As a 12-year member of the prestigious Pittsburgh Steeler defense, Townsend started seven games in the postseason, playing in 14 total. He made 42 tackles with two interceptions on his way to garnering two championship rings in Super Bowls XL and XLIII.

Townsend made trips to Davis Wade Stadium as a collegiate corner but not in Maroon and White. The Mississippi-native was a four-year starter (1994-97) for Alabama, earning first-team All-SEC honors at corner in 1996. After a stellar career in the SEC, Townsend was drafted in the fourth round (117th overall) by Pittsburgh in the 1998 NFL Draft.

Born and raised not far from Starkville in Batesville, Miss., Townsend was a member of national-power South Panola High School, helping put the program on the map. He accumulated 1,800 yards with 18 touchdowns offensively while leading the Tigers to the 5A state championship game during his senior season in 1992.

DAVID TURNER

Defensive Line

Second season at MSU

@CoachDT48

David Turner enters his fifth season coaching the defensive line at Mississippi State. Turner made his return to the Maroon and White in 2013 after a three-year stint coaching the defensive line at Kentucky. Turner coached the same position in Starkville from 2007-09.

A veteran of 28 years as a collegiate coach with 13 seasons of experience in the Southeastern Conference, Turner mentored current NFL standouts Fletcher Cox, Kyle Love, Pernell McPhee and most recently Josh Boyd. Boyd was drafted in the fifth round of the 2013 NFL Draft.

Turner's 2014 defensive line is a veteran group led by seniors Kaleb Eulls, P.J. Jones and Preston Smith. Turner developed Chris Jones, a five-star defensive lineman in high school, into a freshman All-American in 2013. As a team, the Bulldogs ranked fourth in rushing defense in the nation's toughest conference, allowing only 144 yards per game last season.

In his first season at State in 2007, he helped the Bulldogs to their first post-season appearance in seven years and the defense ranked 24th nationally in tackles for loss.

At Kentucky, Turner helped the defense improve in tackles for loss, sacks and rushing yards allowed from the year prior to his hire. The Wildcats improved their sacks-per-game average each season under Turner's watch, posting more than two per game in 2012.

Turner originally joined the MSU staff in 2007 after one season at Alabama. He coached the Crimson Tide defensive ends during his lone campaign in Tuscaloosa. Alabama finished 23rd nationally in total defense in 2006 and advanced to the Independence Bowl.

Prior to Alabama, Turner was the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Vanderbilt from 2002-05. One of his linemen, tackle Jovan Haye, went on to the NFL. Vanderbilt had a significant upgrade in talent level during Turner's term as recruiting coordinator as he helped bring in the players for the Commodores' eventual Music City Bowl championship in 2008.

A native of Goldston, N.C., Turner also has worked in the Big Ten Conference at Minnesota (2001), where he worked with the defensive ends, and in the Atlantic Coast Conference at Virginia (1997-2000), where he coached defensive tackles and linebackers. He also was co-special teams coordinator in his final season. The Cavaliers played in the Peach Bowl, Micronpc.com Bowl and the Oahu Classic during his term there.

Turner began his collegiate coaching career in 1986 as an assistant at his alma mater, Davidson College. He worked with the running backs and tight ends over a two-year stretch. In 1988, he moved to North Carolina State, serving two years as a defensive graduate assistant. He worked with a Wolfpack unit that ranked first in the ACC in total defense in 1988 while playing in the Peach Bowl and Copper Bowl.

He spent one year as the defensive line coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, helping the team to a 12-2 overall record while reaching the Division II national championship game. He also worked two seasons at James Madison, helping the Dukes to a 9-4 record and a berth in the 1991 Division I-AA playoffs.

Turner is married to the former Yvette Modica and the couple has two daughters, Bianca and Alexyia.

RICK COURT

Head Strength Coach

First season at MSU

Rick Court, a 13-year veteran in strength and conditioning who spent the past two seasons working directly with Ohio State football, begins his first season as head strength and conditioning coach at Mississippi State.

Court comes to Starkville after serving as the associate director of strength and conditioning for football on Mickey Marotti's staff at Ohio State since January 2012. During his tenure, the Buckeyes combined for 24 victories, including a perfect 12-0 record and No. 3 national ranking in 2012.

Court coordinates the strength and conditioning of all 15 of the Bulldogs' varsity sports. He officially joined the staff on Jan. 15, 2014.

Court is no stranger to running a strength and conditioning department with four years of director experience. He spent the 2011 season as the director of strength and conditioning at San Diego State where he helped the Aztecs to an 8-5 record and a berth in the New Orleans Bowl.

Prior to his position at SDSU, Court was the director of football strength and conditioning for two years at the University of Toledo from 2009-10. During his final season at Toledo, the Rockets went 8-5 and reached the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl.

In 2008, Court capped a six-year tenure at Bowling Green as strength and conditioning coach. He was an assistant on the Falcons' staff for five years before being elevated to the head strength coach position.

A native of Grosse Point Woods, Mich., Court attended and played baseball at Michigan State, lettering two years as a catcher for the Spartans and serving as a team captain in 2001. He interned for one year with the Michigan State strength and conditioning program and worked with three of the Spartans' programs including football. He also interned in Major League Baseball strength training with the Detroit Tigers after graduating from Michigan State with his degree in kinesiology in 2002.

Court earned in master's degree in sports administration from Eastern Kentucky in 2003.

Court and his wife Molly, who is from Greenville, Mich., have three children: daughter, Alix; son, Cade; and daughter, Tatum.

ROCKEY FELKER

Director of Player Personnel/High School Relations

10th season at MSU

In his fifth different decade with an association to Mississippi State football, Rockey Felker is living proof that persistence, loyalty and hard work pay dividends. Felker played at Mississippi State in the 1970s, served as head coach from 1986-1990 and returned to the Bulldog staff in 2004.

Head coach Dan Mullen has directed Felker with a new charge, serving as director of player personnel and high school relations. It is Felker's second stint in an off-field role, having served as the staff's coordinator of football operations for both Jackie Sherrill and Sylvester Croom. For the previous two seasons before Mullen's arrival, Felker tutored the Bulldog running backs, helping guide Anthony Dixon to nearly 2,000 yards in those two years.

Felker was the nation's youngest collegiate head coach – at age 33 – when he was selected to guide the MSU football program in 1986. He directed the Bulldogs to a 6-5 mark in his first season at the helm, the school's first winning season in five years. Felker's team won road games at Syracuse and at defending SEC champion Tennessee during that '86 season, and he became the first State head football coach to post a winning record in his initial season since the legendary Darrell Royal in 1954. Felker served as State's head football coach through the 1990 season.

He came back to State as the school's head coach following 11 years as an assistant coach on the collegiate level. Immediately prior to rejoining the MSU program, he was an assistant at Alabama from 1983-85. He served as the Crimson Tide receivers coach in 1983-84 and the offensive backfield coach in '85. During his stay in Tuscaloosa, he helped Alabama to post-season bowl wins over SMU ('83 Sun Bowl) and Southern California ('85 Aloha Bowl).

Felker began his coaching career at Mississippi State following his playing days, working for head coach Bob Tyler. He worked with the junior varsity (1975) and the varsity receivers, quarterbacks and running backs (1976-78).

A native of Jackson, Tenn., Felker was a five-sport letterman at Brownsville (Tenn.) High School, earning all-state honors in football under the tutelage of his father, Edwin "Babe" Felker, an assistant coach at the school.

JON CLARK

Assistant Athletic Director/ Football Operations

Sixth season at MSU

Jon Clark, a veteran of 11 years in work surrounding football operations, came to Mississippi State after five seasons at the University of Florida, where he served as the director of football administration. Clark enters his sixth season at MSU working alongside head coach Dan Mullen.

Clark oversees the administrative operations of the football department, including daily scheduling, budget, travel, office staff and other duties. Most recently, Clark has overseen the development and construction of the Leo Seal Complex, a $25 million football training and office facility that was opened in the spring of 2013. The all-encompassing football facility, approximately 80,000 square feet, includes a new weight room, locker room, training room and coaches' offices.

Prior to his stint at Florida, Clark served in the same role at the University of Utah in 2002 and 2003. He first worked with current Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer at Bowling Green where Clark was an undergraduate student manager prior to earning his bachelor's degree in secondary education in May of 2002. After completing his education, Clark accepted a position as an administrative graduate assistant at BGSU.

Clark is married to the former Caitlin Redlich.

In front of a raucous crowd at Reliant Stadium, Mississippi State (0-1) fell to No. 13 Oklahoma State (1-0), 21-3 in the AdvoCare Texas Kickoff.

The Bulldogs struck first in the 2013 season opener, with Devon Bell nailing a 40-yard field goal on the first drive of the game.

MSU's defense followed the field goal by stifling the Cowboys' up-tempo offensive attack, forcing five punts in the first half.

Momentum swung near the end of the first half when OSU put its first points on the board as quarterback J.W. Walsh scored on a 3-yard QB keeper to give the Cowboys a 7-3 lead with a little more than two minutes remaining.

Following an MSU turnover on downs, Oklahoma State drove to the Bulldogs' 32 and set up for a 49-yard field goal with just seconds left. The attempt was blocked by Nickoe Whitley and Taveze Calhoun returned the ball just nine yards short of the end zone to complete the first half.

The third quarter proved to be the turning point in the game as OSU scored on its first drive with a one-yard touchdown from senior running back Jeremy Smith, giving the Cowboys a 14-3 lead.

Dak Prescott entered the game for injured senior quarterback Tyler Russell and put together several solid drives, but before a missed field goal, OSU's Smith scampered for a 20-yard score, making it 21-3 OSU.

In the first home game of 2013, Mississippi State handled the Alcorn State Braves 51-7 to move to 1-1 on the year.

The Bulldogs had seven new starters from the Oklahoma State game, including sophomore quarterback Dak Prescott, who played the entire first two quarters and led his team to a 37-0 halftime lead. Prescott gave way to freshman Damian Williams in the second half.

Freshmen were a big portion of the contest, as true freshmen led MSU in both rushing and receiving, with Ashton Shumpert (98 rushing yards and two touchdowns) making his debut in the backfield, while wide receiver Fred Ross had three catches for 46 yards.

"The losses always look worse than they are and often the wins look better than they are," Mullen said. "There are certainly some things we need to coach and improve on from this game."

Prescott started the MSU scoring binge with an 11-yard touchdown run in the first quarter and was followed by a pair of Derrick Milton touchdowns to give the Bulldogs a 21-0 lead just minutes into the second quarter.

Shumpert punched in his first of two one-yard touchdown plunges in the second quarter to put the home team ahead 28-0. A Jameon Lewis 31-yard touchdown pass from Prescott and a 26-yard field goal closed the first-half scoring.

The Bulldogs resumed the touchdown string in the third quarter as Shumpert cashed in again from a yard away. Alcorn State got a 25-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter from John Gibbs Jr. to Tollette George, but a Nick Griffin 10-yard touchdown run finished the scoring.

The 556 total yards of offense by Mississippi State were tied for the ninth most in a game in program history.

Mississippi State fell 24-20 in the final minute to Auburn at Jordan-Hare Stadium in the 2013 Southeastern Conference opener for both teams.

Auburn jumped out to an 11-0 lead on a 40-yard field goal and 76-yard touchdown pass from Nick Marshall to Quan Bray before MSU climbed back into the contest in the second quarter, trailing only 14-13 at halftime.

MSU got on the scoreboard with just over four minutes remaining in the opening quarter as Jameon Lewis ran for a 14-yard touchdown. Auburn answered with a field goal to make it a 14-6 advantage, but the Bulldogs responded again, this time on a five-yard touchdown run by quarterback Dak Prescott.

In the second half, State seemed to take control of the contest, taking a 20-14 lead in the third quarter on a Prescott two-yard touchdown run. The defense helped turn the game around, holding the Tigers to just 18 yards during the third frame.

Clinging to a 20-17 advantage with under a minute to play, Auburn drove the length of the field and scored the game-winning touchdown with 10 second to play on an 11-yard toss from Marshall to C.J. Uzomah.

Despite the setback, Prescott became the first Mississippi State quarterback to reach 200 passing yards (213) and 100 rushing yards (133) in a game since Chris Relf (224 passing, 103 rushing) against Arkansas in 2010.

On a cool September Saturday night, Mississippi State's offense was hot, racking up 551 yards on the way to a 62-7 victory over Troy.

The Bulldogs, now 2-2 overall, were led by quarterback Dak Prescott, who had four total touchdowns. In fact, both he and receiver Jameon Lewis scored three ways each - rushing, passing and receiving.

MSU's offense lit up the scoreboard, posting 45 points in the first half, the most in a half in the modern era (since 1950), and the second-most ever.

The second quarter alone had 35 points, also the most in the modern era and the second-most ever.

The 62 total points by the Bulldogs were tied for the 13th most in program history and were the most since tallying 66 against Tulane on Oct. 22, 1994.

The Trojans were held to only 186 total yards, 47 rushing and 139 passing. The Trojans entered the contest averaging 547 yards a contest, good for 14th in the country. It was the first time Troy did not reach the 200-yard plateau since Oct. 15, 2011, versus Louisiana-Monroe (126 yards).

Linebacker Matt Wells led the defensive unit with five tackles, including one sack and 1.5 tackles for loss.

It was actually the defense that sparked the scoring as cornerback Jamerson Love recorded his first interception of the year and second of his career, returning the pick 70 yards for a touchdown to end Troy's first drive of the game. The runback was tied for the 12th longest in program history.

Through three quarters, Mississippi State and LSU played a tight and entertaining game. But then the 10th-ranked Tigers erupted for 28 points in the fourth quarter, ultimately downing the Bulldogs 59-26.

With the loss, State fell to 2-3 overall, 0-2 in Southeastern Conference play. LSU improved to 5-1, 2-1.

Dak Prescott got the start at quarterback for MSU, completing 9-of-20 passes for 106 yards, in addition to 103 yards and a touchdown on the ground.

Senior signal caller Tyler Russell returned to action as well, racking up 146 yards and two touchdowns, while completing 7-of-11 passes as he was mixed in with Prescott in his return to the field since being injured in Week 1 versus Oklahoma State.

Russell's two touchdown passes broke Derrick Taite's (1993-96/38) program record for career TD tosses and Russell finished the evening with 39.

Jameon Lewis led MSU with 111 yards receiving on seven catches, including a 20-yard touchdown toss from Russell.

Lewis' 111 receiving yards were the fourth most in a game by a Bulldog wide receiver during an SEC contest in the Dan Mullen era and Lewis' 201 all-purpose yards were the fifth most by an MSU player in a league game under Mullen.

Mississippi State (3-3) escaped Saturday night with a close Homecoming win over Bowling Green (5-2), defeating the Falcons 21-20 at Davis Wade Stadium.

The Bulldogs' 3-3 record makes it the fourth-straight year MSU has had a .500 or better record through six contests, a first for the program since 1997-2000.

Penalties and mistakes made it a closer game than the Bulldogs would have liked against the Falcons, but 139 rushing yards and 75 passing by quarterback Dak Prescott (and two rushing touchdowns) helped the home team to victory.

Joe Morrow was the team's leading receiver with four catches for 57 yards, while senior running back LaDarius Perkins was second only to Prescott with 83 yards rushing including one touchdown, a diving score on the opening drive of the evening.

Perkins' 83 yards gave him 2,285 in his career and moved him into seventh place on the Mississippi State career rushing yardage chart. Dixon is the career leader with 3,994 yards.

MSU's two other scores came on the ground as well with runs of 75 yards and 10 yards from Prescott, while senior Tyler Russell actually drew the start for MSU at quarterback, completing 12-of-14 passes for 102 yards.

Defensively, State was led with eight tackles each from Deontae Skinner and Benardrick McKinney.

On the backs of Jameon Lewis, Dak Prescott and a late defensive stand, Mississippi State (4-3, 1-2 SEC) beat Kentucky (1-6, 0-4) 28-22 in Starkville on a chilly Thursday night at Davis Wade Stadium.

For the second time this season, Lewis scored three different ways, reaching the end zone by receiving, rushing and passing for a touchdown. The junior wide receiver had 53 yards on seven catches, 22 yards on a pair of rushes and 17 yards on his one pass, a touchdown to Prescott, the sophomore quarterback.

Senior linebacker Deontae Skinner paced the Bulldogs with 11 tackles defensively, including six solo stops. He was followed by linebacker Benardrick McKinney, who notched 10 of his own.

The victory pushed the Bulldogs' overall record to 4-3 and putting the program above .500 through seven games in consecutive years, a first for MSU since 1999-2000.

Mississippi State has won four-straight contests versus Southeastern Conference East Division foes (2011/Kentucky, 2012/Tennessee and Kentucky, 2013/Kentucky). It is tied for the program's longest winning streak versus East Division foes since the divisional format was adopted for the 1992 season (2009/Kentucky, 2010/Georgia, Florida, Kentucky). Head coach Dan Mullen also improved to 9-3 against SEC East foes with the triumph.

Five turnovers plagued Mississippi State (4-4, 1-3 SEC) Saturday afternoon as the Bulldogs fell 34-16 to 14th-ranked South Carolina at Williams-Brice Stadium.

After a first half that saw the Bulldogs down only a touchdown at halftime (17-10), Carolina capitalized on two MSU miscues in the third quarter and sandwiched another touchdown in between to lead 34-10 after three periods. MSU managed a fourth-quarter score for the final points of the afternoon.

State actually outgained USC in total offense, 385 yards to 307. The Bulldog attack was led by quarterback Dak Prescott, who was 28-of-43 through the air for 235 yards, but he was also hampered by three interceptions. MSU's two TDs on the day came from Prescott rushes. Robert Johnson and Jameon Lewis were Prescott's favorite targets, each hauling in seven receptions.

Defensively, State was paced by Deontae Skinner's five tackles. Three others had four stops, including Preston Smith who added a tackle for loss and QB hurry. Bernardrick McKinney added a quarterback sack.

In the last game of a road stretch before returning home, Mississippi State (4-5, 1-4 SEC) tried its best to keep up with the Texas A&M offense, but just couldn't quite do it, falling by a 51-41 score to the 15th-ranked Aggies (8-2, 4-2) Saturday afternoon.

Tyler Russell started the game at quarterback for MSU, but Dak Prescott entered on the third drive and played the majority of the game for the Bulldogs, racking up over 100 rushing yards (154) for the fourth time this season. He accounted for 303 yards of total offense in the game including two touchdown passes.

The Aggie defense mostly held receiver Jameon Lewis in check, but the multi-purpose threat threw his third touchdown of the season, a trick play with Joe Morrow on the receiving end of the score.

True freshman De'Runnya Wilson was the star of the receiving group, hauling in a career-high seven catches for 75 yards and two touchdowns for the Bulldogs.

Josh Robinson and LaDarius Perkins each added TDs on the ground for State. Robinson amassed 73 yards rushing.

Jamerson Love had a career day defensively, intercepting Heisman-winner Johnny Manziel twice (two of three picks that State had on the day), though the defense had a tough time holding the A&M quarterback in check much of the afternoon.

Mississippi State gave top-ranked Alabama a fight for the majority of Saturday night, but stifling defense and recovery from errors ultimately gave the Crimson Tide (10-0, 7-0 SEC) a 20-7 victory over the Bulldogs (4-6, 1-5).

MSU's defense put forth one of its best performances of the year, limiting the Crimson Tide to its lowest point total of 2013, and fewest since a 9-6 outing against LSU on Nov. 5, 2011.

The Bulldogs were led by true freshman defensive lineman Chris Jones and cornerback Taveze Calhoun. Jones had a sack and a tackle for loss. Calhoun picked off Tide quarterback A.J. McCarron twice as the Bulldog defense forced four turnovers over the course of the game.

Kendrick Market led all MSU tacklers with a personal-best 10 stops. He also forced his first career fumble.

Offensively, Mississippi State was led by senior quarterback Tyler Russell, who completed 15-of-24 passes for 144 yards, and junior tight end Malcolm Johnson, who caught a career-high six passes for a personal-best 84 yards.

State's lone score of the night, early in the third quarter, came when offensive lineman Charles Siddoway recovered a loose MSU fumble in the end zone. At the time, it trimmed Alabama's lead to 10-7.

It was the first touchdown by an MSU offensive lineman since senior Gabe Jackson fell on a ball in the end zone against Auburn on Sept. 9, 2010.

It took overtime to secure the victory, but Mississippi State found a way to win on the road Saturday afternoon, beating Arkansas 24-17. State (5-6, 2-5 SEC) kept bowl hopes alive with the win. Arkansas fell to 3-8, 0-6 in the league.

Bulldog true freshman quarterback Damian Williams scored the winning touchdown for the Bulldogs on the first play of overtime, a 25-yard scamper up the middle. Taveze Calhoun sealed the win by intercepting the Razorbacks on fourth down on the potential game-tying possession for the Hogs.

Running back Josh Robinson led the way for MSU offensively, racking up 101 yards on the ground despite only playing in the second half. Signal caller Tyler Russell, named the starting quarterback shortly before the game, put up a gritty effort despite his injury from last week, completing 18-of-28 passes for 263 yards and two touchdowns.

Wide receiver Jameon Lewis made a big return to the stat book, catching six passes for 94 yards and a score.

Defensively, the Bulldogs forced two fumbles and racked up seven tackles for loss to keep the Razorback offense in check. Senior safety Nickoe Whitley, in addition to a forced and recovered fumble, led the team with 10 tackles on the afternoon.

In below freezing temperatures and in front of a raucous home crowd, Mississippi State powered its way to an overtime victory against arch rival Ole Miss Thursday night, winning the 110th edition of the Egg Bowl 17-10 at Davis Wade Stadium to close out the 2013 regular season.

It was Dan Mullen's fourth victory in the Battle for the Golden Egg in his five years at MSU and his Bulldogs are now bowl-eligible for the fourth-straight year under his guidance.

For the second-straight week, it was MSU's defense being a key in securing an overtime victory for State, stripping the ball away from Ole Miss quarterback Bo Wallace and recovering it in the end zone to end the game.

Dak Prescott didn't make an appearance until the fourth quarter, but his late-game drive led to the tying field goal at 10-10 and then he took the ball into the end zone himself in overtime to score the winning points. Prescott, who was not expected to play in the game due to injury, relieved freshman Damian Williams, who put up a very solid effort in his first start under center ever for MSU.

Taveze Calhoun played the best game of his young career, racking up a team-high 11 tackles, including nine solo. Nickoe Whitley, Justin Cox and Richie Brown all had interceptions of Ole Miss quarterback Bo Wallace, who the MSU defense kept in pretty solid check all night long. Brown and Chris Jones also notched sacks of Wallace in the contest.

Prior to the winning TD in overtime, State got a touchdown in the second quarter on a 1-yard Josh Robinson run and the tying field goal from Evan Sobiesk with just 2:21 left in regulation.

Mississippi State ended the year and its 2013 season and year with a fitting celebration Tuesday, ousting the Rice Owls 44-7 to claim victory in the 55th AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

With the win, the Bulldogs secured their fourth-straight winning season and Dan Mullen earned the record for most bowl wins by any MSU coach ever, now 3-1 in four bowl appearances in his five seasons as the Bulldog mentor.

State dominated the game on both sides of the ball, with the defense holding Rice's top-15 national rushing attack to only 61 yards on the ground in the game while the Bulldog offense racked up 533 total yards on the other side of the ball.

After the Owls took an early 7-0 lead, the Bulldogs went on to score 44 unanswered points in the convincing win. Five different State players scored touchdowns in the contest.

State set school and Liberty Bowl records in the game. Quarterback Dak Prescott accounted for five touchdowns responsible for (a Liberty Bowl record) while throwing for 283 yards and three scores and rushing for two others. Wide receiver Jameon Lewis set the all-time MSU record for receiving yards in any game - regular or post season - with 220 yards on nine catches. Preston Smith led the Bulldogs with six tackles.

MSU ended 2013 on a flurry, winning consecutive overtime games at Arkansas and against arch rival Ole Miss at home to become bowl eligible and vault itself into Tuesday's contest in Memphis.

Mississippi State 12
Duquesne 13

January 1, 1937 • Orange Bowl • Miami, Fla.

A desperation 72-yard touchdown pass from tailback Boyd Brumbaugh to end Ernie Hefferlie spelled an end to Mississippi State's upset hopes as Duquesne edged the Bulldogs 13-12 in the first decade of Orange Bowl history.

With time running out, coach John "Little Clipper" Smith's Dukes went to the air. His team had thrown six straight incompletions before Brumbaugh heaved one after fading back all the way to his own 20-yard line. Hefferlie cradled it in at the State 25 and scored untouched for the game-winner.

"A shouting, shirt-sleeved crowd of 9,210 went wild when Brumbaugh's bull's eye in the final period pulled the Dukes from almost certain defeat," a local newspaper account detailed.

Coach Ralph Sasse's Bulldogs, who ended the year at a hearty 7-3-1 after the post-season clash, scored first on a 10-yard run by back Ike Pickle. Pickle later boomed an 82-yard punt for an Orange Bowl record that still stands.

After Brumbaugh plunged 1 yard and a PAT kick put the Dukes of Pittsburgh, Pa., ahead 7-6, State reversed the advantage again when tailback Pee Wee Armstrong of Meridian lofted a 40-yard touchdown pass to Fred Walters of Laurel to give the Bulldogs a 12-7 lead. That same twosome had combined for a 65-yard scoring pass to give MSU a stunning 13-7 upset at Army during the 1935 season.

Armstrong's scintillating passes had provided State with the impetus to gain the lead. His aerial strikes set up Pickle's touchdown run prior to his throw to Walters to gain Mississippi State the lead.

Brumbaugh later found Hefferlie for the game-winning TD pass in the fourth quarter. The Dukes edged State after two Bulldog conversion tries had failed.

The narrow loss to Duquesne was a microcosm of the '36 season for State. The Maroons lost three games by a total of 20 points.

#9 Mississippi State 14
#13 Georgetown 7

January 1, 1941 • Orange Bowl • Miami, Fla.

The Associated Press proclaimed following State's standout season: "Mississippi State reigns as undisputed king of football in the Deep South. State's 13-0 trouncing of Alabama and subsequent acceptance of an Orange Bowl bid eliminated any doubt that the Maroons were gridiron kings of these parts."

Almost a year before the United States of America officially entered World War II, Mississippi State downed the Georgetown Hoyas (who reigned strongly in Eastern football circles in those days) 14-7 in the '41 Orange Bowl to end the year with a 10-0-1 record and a No. 9 ranking nationally.

Coach Allyn McKeen's crew scored in the first quarter when tackle John Tripson covered a blocked Hoya punt in the end zone and Wilbur Dees' extra point gave the Bulldogs a quick 7-0 lead.

State's rugged defense took control in the second quarter after the Bulldogs had jumped ahead 14-0 when tailback Billy Jefferson scored on a 2-yard dive play and Sonny Bruce kicked the PAT.

Georgetown dented Coach McKeen's vaunted defense for the lone Hoyas' TD of the day in the third quarter when Benny Castiglia hit paydirt on a 2-yard run. But MSU managed good ball control behind the running of tailback Harvey Johnson and the defensive work of all-America end Buddy Elrod to secure its first bowl win.

State was led by Starkville native Hunter Corhern, a captain of the team and an outstanding guard. MSU was considered to have the finest line in the South during the '40 season, a group that boasted three all-Southeastern Conference performers, plus the aforementioned Elrod, a consensus all-America.

When asked to compare all his great teams at Mississippi State, head coach Allyn McKeen said, "Some of the school's greatest wins came during the 1939 season, but I have to go with the 1940 team as my best."

December 21, 1963 • Philadelphia Stadium • Philadelphia, Penn.

Hot coffee froze on press box ledges between kickoff and halftime, but the action on the field was warm enough to offset eight-degree temperatures and 17 mile-per-hour winds outside as coach Paul Davis' Bulldogs took a 16-12 win over the North Carolina State Wolfpack.

As the Bulldogs capped a 7-2-2 season before their first national television audience (on NBC, with the legendary Lindsey Nelson providing play-by-play) at Philadelphia Stadium, a blocked punt helped provide MSU's margin of victory for the second bowl game in a row.

In the first quarter, MSU end Bill McGuire blocked a Dave Houtz punt at the N.C. State 26, and fellow end Tommy Inman scooped up the loose football and ran it 11 yards for an MSU score. Justin Canale's PAT made it 7-0. Quarterback Sonny Fisher gave the Bulldogs a little more breathing room later in the period as the Laurel, Miss., resident sprinted 3 yards for a second touchdown. Canale's extra-point kick failed, but the future pro football standout later redeemed himself.

He gave MSU a 16-0 second-quarter lead with a 43-yard field goal into the gusty wind.

But North Carolina State made a bit of a comeback bid, aided by 122 yards on 11 penalties assessed against the aggressive Bulldogs. The Wolfpack scored the last two touchdowns of the game, but both two-point conversion attempts failed.

Coach Davis and his team had heaters on the State bench and a Plexiglas canopy to protect them from the frigid air.

"The defense did a good job all day, especially considering the conditions," Davis said. "We had a stronger line."

North Carolina 24

December 28, 1974 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas

Mississippi State's 26-24 Sun Bowl win over North Carolina was one of the truly great contests of the 1974-75 bowl season.

Coach Bob Tyler's Bulldogs, who finished 9-3 and 18th in the nation, set the stage for the game when Most Valuable Offensive Player Terry Vitrano took a handoff from quarterback Rockey Felker and sprinted 55 yards on the game's opening play.

While a rising fog blanketed the field during most of the first half, Vitrano gained big chunks of real estate to end the day with 164 yards on 20 carries, including a game-winning, two-yard touchdown run.

That run capped a 6:29 drive that ate most of the fourth-quarter clock, ending at the 3:41 mark. Three times MSU faced third downs on the drive and State faced a fourth-and-2 at the UNC 25-yard line, where Felker called his own number, clawing for 15 yards. Felker then ran eight more yards to set up Vitrano winning score.

The drive reminded both Tyler and Felker of the Bulldogs' 29-28 win over Memphis State earlier in the year, a game in which State drove 98 yards in the closing two minutes for the win.

All-America defensive tackle Jimmy Webb, named Most Valuable Defensive Player in the game, registered one of his most critical 12 tackles of the day on a fourth-and-short situation at midfield in the fourth quarter to preserve the MSU win.

MSU's all-SEC tailback Walter Packer piled up 183 yards on 24 attempts, scoring on runs of 1 and 16 yards while Vic Nickels kicked field goals of 24 and 32 yards.

Mississippi State's 455 yards of rushing, which still stand as a Sun Bowl record, were just a bit much for the Tar Heels, coached by MSU grad Bill Dooley.

"This team was better than we expected in a lot of ways," Tyler said. "I think we're a year ahead. We established unity in our program that usually takes two seasons to establish. I've never been more confident or enthusiastic about the future than I am right now."

#8 Nebraska 31

December 27, 1980 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas

The scene was the same as six years earlier in the Sun Bowl when Mississippi State engaged a team that had as much talent as any football power in the nation.

This bowl trip proved to be less successful, however, as coach Tom Osborne's Huskers prevailed in a 31-17 contest.

Mississippi State had won five consecutive regular-season games to enter the contest with a 9-2 record under coach Emory Bellard, but Nebraska was just a bit too deep and powerful as the Huskers took a 17-0 halftime lead.

State's high-powered offensive attack, which set school records for total offense and rushing offense, later cut the margin to 24-17 behind the option play of freshman quarterback John Bond of Valdosta, Ga. He ran for one touchdown on a 1-yard sneak and hit all-SEC tailback Michael Haddix of Walnut, Miss., for an 11-yard TD pass and MSU's final touchdown.

The day, however, belonged to Nebraska's defense, which held Bond to minus-8 yards rushing on 16 carries, and to seven completions in 19 attempts with two interceptions.

Sophomore kicking specialist Dana Moore from Baton Rouge, La., booted a 47-yard field goal and had a 64-yard punt, enabling him to achieve an MSU-record, 50-yard punting average for the afternoon.

"I am proud of our team and the season we had," Bellard said. "We just flat out gave Nebraska too many opportunities. Our defense played well enough to win. Looking at what we have, we will be back next year."

December 31, 1981 • Legion Field • Birmingham, Ala.

With Defensive Most Valuable Player and all-America linebacker Johnie Cooks of Leland, Miss., leading a fierce charge, Mississippi State scored its first bowl shutout win by downing the Kansas Jayhawks of the Big Eight Conference 10-0 to improve its bowl record to 4-2.

It was, indeed, a day for the defense.

The Bulldogs, aided by a steady mist that fell throughout the day, held Kansas to 35 yards rushing on 40 attempts, intercepted a pair of Jayhawk passes, and forced a fumble. State recorded its first shutout since 1979.

Lightning struck early for the Bulldogs as all-SEC defensive back Rob Fesmire of Nashville, Tenn., recovered a Ricky Green fumble on the opening kickoff and the opportunistic Bulldogs scored on the next play. Quarterback John Bond, State's Offensive Most Valuable Player and the game's MVP, sprinted 17 yards around right end on the first play from scrimmage and Bob Morgan's PAT gave the Bulldogs an early 7-0 lead.

Place-kicker Dana Moore iced the game with a 22-yard field goal with just over 11 minutes left in the first half for the final margin of victory. The Bulldogs advanced to 8-4 and moved up to 17th in the final AP national poll.

Moore also set a record, averaging 49.1 yards per punt on nine kicks.

Wingback Danny Knight of Natchez, Miss., contributed a big 37-yard sprint down the left sideline on a third-and-long situation while Cooks, defensive tackles Glen Collins, Earnest Barnes and a number of unsung heroes on the specialty teams gathered together to provide the Bulldogs with the ingredients necessary for a satisfying bowl win.

"The whole defensive unit played extremely well," MSU head coach Emory Bellard said. "We didn't ring the bell quite enough on offense, but we did move the ball down the field a good bit."

December 29, 1991 • Liberty Bowl • Memphis, Tenn.

An all-time Liberty Bowl crowd of 61,497 looked on as the wishbone-attack of the Air Force Academy spoiled Mississippi State's return to the bowl scene with a 38-15 victory over the Bulldogs in the 33rd annual Liberty Bowl postseason contest.

Directed by all-WAC quarterback and Liberty Bowl MVP Rob Perez, the Falcons piled up 318 net yards rushing while attempting only two passes in this ESPN telecast. A potent ground attack earned AFA a 37:34-22:26 edge in possession time.

The Falcons jumped on MSU early as they posted three unanswered touchdowns before the Bulldogs dented the scoreboard just before halftime. AFA scored on a pair of 1-yard plunges by Jason Jones and Perez in the opening stanza. A 35-yard fumble return by Air Force's Shannon Yates at the 6:12 mark of the second quarter stretched the lead to 21-0.

The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard with the final score of the first half, a 4-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sleepy Robinson to tight end Trenell Edwards.

After the intermission, AFA added a third-quarter, 20-yard field goal by Joe Wood and a 31-yard touchdown gallop by Scott Hufford to build the Falcons' insurmountable lead to 31-7 with 14:19 remaining in the contest.

Making its first bowl appearance in 10 years, MSU scored its final points on a 7-yard run by fullback Michael Davis with 7:23 left on the game clock.

#19 North Carolina 21

January 1, 1993 • The Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Despite jumping out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, Mississippi State couldn't hold off a North Carolina squad playing an inspired second half as the Tar Heels posted a 21-17 victory in the first Peach Bowl held inside The Georgia Dome.

The Bulldogs jumped on top early, scoring on their first possession when Greg Plump found Olanda Truitt on a 2-yard touchdown pass. MSU added to that lead when Kenny Roberts raced 22 yards on the final play of the first quarter to give the Bulldogs a 14-0 lead.

State had a chance to put the game away in the second quarter, but a pair of Plump-to-Truitt touchdown passes were called back due to Bulldog holding penalties.

Trailing 14-0 at halftime, North Carolina took the second half kickoff and drove 82 yards to score on Natrone Means' 1-yard plunge. Later in the third period, the Tar Heels' Bracey Walker broke through to block a Todd Jordan punt and raced 24 yards into the end zone to tie the game at 14-14.

North Carolina took the lead for good early in the fourth quarter when UNC's Cliff Baskerville intercepted a Plump pass and returned it 44 yards for the go-ahead touchdown.

After Chris Gardner's 46-yard field goal made the score 21-17, the Bulldogs had their chances to win the game late. MSU drove inside the Tar Heel 30 twice in the game's final three minutes, but an interception and loss on downs, respectively, doomed the Bulldogs' final chances.

#16 Mississippi State 24
#23 NC State 28

January 2, 1995 • The Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

For the second time in three years, Mississippi State earned a berth in the Peach Bowl. And for the second time in three years, the Bulldogs held a third-quarter lead over its counterpart. But again, State could not maintain that advantage, dropping a 28-24 decision to NC State.

Like it had done two years prior, Mississippi State gained an early advantage in this Peach Bowl match-up. Place-kicker Tim Rogers, MSU's Offensive Player of the Game, booted a 37-yard field goal just 2:21 into the contest, and the Bulldogs had a 3-0 advantage. It would be the first of a bowl-record and school-standard tying five field goals for Rogers.

But, as NC State was able to do throughout the game, the Wolfpack erased that early lead. Running back Tremayne Stephens capped an 80-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run to give NCSU a 7-3 lead.

Rogers and Steve Videtich traded field goals around the first-quarter break before the Bulldogs mounted a touchdown drive of their own. Senior running back Michael Davis scored from 11 yards out to give MSU a 13-10 edge.

A pair of big plays opened the door for the Bulldogs to take control of the game as the second half began. Forcing the 'Pack to punt on their first series of the second half, Andre Bennett blocked the NC State kick into the end zone for a safety, and MSU had a two-point lead.

On the ensuing free kick, Keffer McGee returned the punt a bowl-record 50 yards, putting the Bulldogs in business at the NCSU 15-yard line. Unable to advance the ball into the end zone, State settled for a Rogers field goal and its lead was just 18-13.

Three plays later, however, Larry Williams, State's Defensive Player of the Game, put his team back in scoring position with a standout defensive play. On a second-and-16 play from the NCSU 30, Williams sacked quarterback Terry Harvey, stripped him of the football, and then recovered the pigskin at the 21.

But once again, the Bulldog attack was not able to capitalize, and Rogers was forced to convert a 36-yard field goal.

Rejuvenated by the disaster averted, NC State struck for a game-tying touchdown and two-point conversion at the close of the third period. Harvey hit Dallas Dickerson from 3 yards out for the score, and then ran for the extra points.

The Wolfpack used a big play of their own, a 62-yard pass play to set up their go-ahead score. Freshman fullback Carlos King bulled in from 11 yards away and State was down 28-21.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL COTTON BOWL CLASSIC

#23 Mississippi State 11
#20 Texas 38

January 1, 1999 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas

Playing in their first traditional New Year's Day bowl game since the 1941 Orange Bowl, the Bulldogs faced an enormous task in trying to stop the University of Texas and its Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams. Behind Williams' Cotton Bowl record 203 yards rushing and two touchdowns, the Longhorns snapped their seven-game losing slide to Jackie Sherrill and defeated Mississippi State 38-11 in the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic.

Texas struck early in the contest behind the arm of quarterback Major Applewhite. The freshman found Wayne McGarity late in the opening period on a 59-yard scoring strike, giving Texas an early 7-0 lead.

The Longhorns took advantage of good field position and a long pass play to take a 14-0 lead, as Applewhite again called McGarity's number for a 52-yard touchdown with 5:11 to go in the first half.

Mississippi State would close out the scoring in the half with a 39-yard field goal from senior Brian Hazelwood.

After showcasing their passing game in the first half, Texas began to exploit a tired Bulldog defense with a running game that featured the NCAA's career rushing leader in Williams, who got the scoring started in the second half with a 37-yard gallop to stretch the Longhorns' lead to 21-3 just 2:26 into the second half. A Kris Stockton field goal would extend the UT lead to 24-3 six minutes later.

The Bulldog offense, led by James Johnson's 112 yards on the ground, still struggled to find its niche against a stubborn Texas defense. An injury to star all-purpose receiver Kevin Prentiss in the opening half made their task even more difficult. Unable to keep the weary MSU defense off the field, the Bulldogs were victimized by another Williams' scoring run at the 2:42 mark of the third period as Texas grabbed control of the contest with a 31-3 advantage.

#15 Mississippi State 17
Clemson 7

December 30, 1999 • The Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Behind the impetus that had been the key all season — defense — Mississippi State downed Clemson 17-7 in the 1999 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl in Atlanta's Georgia Dome.

The win gave State its 10th victory of the season, grouping the '99 Bulldogs with MSU's '40 edition which also posted 10 victories.

MSU notched the win despite allowing the most yardage it had all season (391), with 301 of that coming from quarterback Brandon Streeter who passed 50 times in the game.

Defense was the norm in the first half for both squads as the teams played to a scoreless tie at halftime.The closest either team got to a score in the first half was when Clemson advanced to State's 9-yard line late in the first quarter. But Tiger Tony Lazzara's field goal attempt was blocked by Bulldog senior Robert Bean, who registered his seventh career blocked kick.

State wasted little time breaking the scoring ice in the second half. After Pig Prather returned the opening kickoff after intermission 45 yards to the MSU 47-yard line, the Bulldogs drove 31 yards on seven plays to set up a 39-yard field goal from Scott Westerfield at the 12:39 mark.

Three possessions later, Clemson threatened to answer, driving to the State 13 where it faced a fourth-and-7. The Tigers elected to go for it, but the MSU defense held firm, with defensive lineman John Hilliard batting down a Streeter pass.

The quarter would end with State leading 3-0. The fourth quarter would be quite a different story in terms of point production, as the teams combined for three touchdowns in the final frame.

State extended its lead to 10-0 on the first full drive of the final period, going 43 yards on 10 plays with quarterback Wayne Madkin scrambling for a 2-yard score. The drive was set up at Clemson's 43-yard line on an interception by Bulldog Eugene Clinton, one of five State pickoffs in the contest.

Clemson would answer on the ensuing possession with its only score of the night. The Tigers drove 70 yards on eight plays with Streeter diving in from a yard out.

But State was not intimidated. The Bulldogs answered that challenge with a solid eight-play, 57-yard charge of their own. Madkin, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, found tailback Dontae Walker on the left side and Walker jaunted 15 yards for the touchdown which iced the game for MSU at 17-7 with 4:31 remaining in regulation.

Mississippi State 41
Texas A&M 38 (OT)

December 31, 2000 • Independence Bowl • Shreveport, La.

Willie Blade blocked an extra point, Julius Griffith ran it to the end zone for a two-point conversion, and Wayne Madkin scored from 6 yards out — all in overtime — to give Mississippi State a hard-fought, 43-41 decision over Texas A&M in the snow-filled Independence Bowl.

The Aggies took advantage of a couple of early MSU miscues on the snow-covered field to take a 14-0 edge seven minutes into the game. After scoring following a mishandled MSU snap just over two minutes into the contest, A&M continued to control momentum on fullback Ja'Mar Toombs' 4-yard plunge. Toombs had a game-high 193 yards.

Jackie Sherrill's Bulldogs fought back in the second quarter. With Toombs running through the State defense, Dontae Walker returned the favor to the Aggie stoppers, tallying 143 yards of his own. The sophomore took a handoff up the middle and scurried for 40 of those yards over the goal line to cut the lead.

With just over a minute until halftime, State scored behind Wayne Madkin. After the junior quarterback rushed for 10 yards, he connected on two pass plays, the second a four-yard score to Dicenzo Miller to tie the game at 14.

A&M bounced back with 31 seconds left in the half to take a 20-14 lead into the locker room. Quarterback Mark Farris lofted a ball high and deep into the heavy falling snow, finding Robert Ferguson on a 42-yard score.

The Aggies tried to put the game out of reach with two fourth-quarter touchdowns. On the opening play of the period, Farris once again went deep, this time connecting with Bethel Johnson on a 35-yard strike. A two-point conversion put the Aggies up 28-21. Toombs extended the lead on the following possession, rushing in from 13 yards to give A&M a 35-21 edge.

Walker cut the lead back to seven as he rushed in from 32 yards out, and, after a Marco Minor interception put MSU at the Aggie 4-yard line, Madkin found tight end Donald Lee in the end zone for the touchdown that sent the game into overtime, tied 35-35.

In the extra session, Toombs rushed in from 25 yards out on the first play to put A&M up 41-35. Blade reached up and blocked the Aggie extra point try. Eugene Clinton picked up the loose ball and pitched to Griffith who ran it in for two points.

Faced with a must-score situation on State's first overtime try, Madkin rushed down to the Aggies' 6-yard line and then took a keeper into the end zone to clinch the 43-41 win in what has become known as "Snow Bowl 2000".

Mississippi State 10
UCF 3

December 29, 2007 • Liberty Bowl Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Mississippi State cashed in on Central Florida's fourth turnover of the game, marching to the lone touchdown of the day late in the fourth quarter, to defeat the Knights 10-3 in the 49th renewal of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, a game that was otherwise very defensive in nature.

With the win, MSU ended the 2007 season at 8-5, its most wins since 2000, and improved to 2-0 all-time over UCF which ended the year 10-4 after winning its last seven games and claiming the Conference USA crown. The Bulldogs also improved to 7-6 all-time in bowl games with the victory and has now been victorious its last three bowl appearances.

The late score, a 1-yard plunge by running back Anthony Dixon, came with just 1:54 remaining in the game. It capped a 10-play, 59-yard drive, State's longest of the day by almost 20 yards, that was setup by Bulldog Keith Fitzhugh's interception of Knight quarterback Kyle Israel, his third throwing miscue of the contest.

But until that point in the game, neither team had generated much offense in a game very much controlled by the defenses. Only two second quarter field goals - one by each team - graced the scoreboard in the first three quarters and the teams would combined for just 418 yards of total offense in the affair.

After a scoreless first quarter started the lowest scoring first half in Liberty Bowl history, UCF finally broke scoring ice after gaining excellent field position at the Bulldog 46 early in the second period. The Knights then moved the ball 18 yards to set up a Michael Torres 45-yard field goal that just cleared the crossbar. UCF led 3-0 with 11:49 to go before the intermission.

After the Knights forced a State punt on the next drive, the Bulldogs got their first break of the afternoon. MSU's Derek Pegues, named the game's Most Valuable Player, picked off the first of two passes at the Knight 46 and returned it 40 yards to the 6-yard line. UCF stood strong, however, and held MSU to a 22-yard Adam Carlson field goal, tying the game at the 6:02 mark.

UCF would have scoring chances on two consecutive drives in the third and fourth periods but Torres, who came into the game having hit 19-of-21 field goals on the year, would miss from 32 and 37 yards on those drives, negating some offensive momentum that the Knights had built at that point in the contest.

Dixon ended the day with 86 yards on 24 carries for the Bulldogs, who managed just 198 yards from scrimmage the entire game.

The game's attendance of 63,816 established a new Liberty Bowl record. The previous record of 61,497 was set in 1991 when the Bulldogs played Air Force.

#21 Mississippi State 52
Michigan 14

January 1, 2011 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

It was an offensive clinic from start to finish for Mississippi State, as the Bulldogs manufactured 485 total yards en route to a dominating 52-14 win against Michigan in the 66th annual Gator Bowl at EverBank Field.

Mississippi State set several school bowl records with points scored (52) and margin of victory (38). In addition, the 485 total yards of offense were second only to the 499 gained against North Carolina in the 1974 Sun Bowl.

Chris Relf, named the game's MVP, completed 18 of his 23 passes for 281 yards and three touchdowns. The 281 passing yards were the second most in MSU bowl history. They are also the only two quarterbacks to throw for more than 200 yards in a bowl game. Relf, a junior from Montgomery, Ala., also scored on the ground from 1-yard out and finished with 311 total yards.

As prolific as MSU's offense was, so too was the defense. The Bulldogs held the Wolverines (7-6) to 342 yards, with 153 coming in the opening quarter. Michigan did enjoy a 14-10 lead after the first frame, but failed to score another point the remainder of the game.

Quarterback Denard Robinson was limited to a season-low 51 yards after grounding out 59 in the first quarter.

Robinson's arm produced the game's first points when he connected with Roy Roundtree for a 10-yard scoring strike. MSU quickly answered, though, and evened the score when Relf hit Arceto Clark from 4 yards out.

On their next possession, the Bulldogs took their first lead at 10-7 on a 42-yard field goal by Derek DePasquale. Back came the Wolverines, however, who went back on top following a 27-yard touchdown pass from Robinson to Martavious Odoms.

That play, though, would be Michigan's last highlight of the game. From that point, it was all Mississippi State.

With 11:38 left in the first half, Vick Ballard scored the first of his three touchdowns to give MSU a 17-14 lead. Then with 6:35 remaining, Relf found the end zone to extend the advantage to 24-14.

But the Bulldogs weren't done, as they scored again with 25 seconds left, this time on a 15-yard pass from Relf to Ricco Sanders, his first-career TD reception, for a 31-14 lead.

In the second half, the Bulldogs, who converted 9 of their 17 third-down attempts and were 5 of 5 on fourth down, got two more touchdowns from Ballard covering 1 and 7 yards. Ballard finished the year with 19 rushing touchdowns, breaking the single-season mark of 16 set by Jackie Parker in 1952.

MSU's final points were the result of a 31-yard pass from Relf to Michael Carr, the first touchdown of the freshman's career.

Mississippi State 23
Wake Forest 17

December 30, 2011 • LP Field • Nashville, Tenn.

Donning the Maroon and White for the final time, senior running back Vick Ballard put the team on his back as he rushed for a career-high 180 yards and two touchdowns to propel Mississippi State to a 23-17 victory against Wake Forest in the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl.

The Pascagoula, Miss., native was named MVP, while his production was the second best in MSU bowl history.

It was the Bulldogs' fifth-consecutive bowl win, a streak that tied Rutgers for the longest in the nation. MSU also improved to 9-6 in bowl outings, with a 4-2 mark against ACC foes.

Ballard deserves a bulk of the credit for MSU's latest achievement, breaking free down the sidelines for a 60-yard scoring scamper with 34 seconds left in the opening quarter to even the game at 7-apiece after the Demon Deacons had scored on a 14-yard run by Brandon Pendergrass.

In the second quarter, Mississippi State turned to its passing game to take the lead for good when senior quarterback Chris Relf connected with a wide open Arceto Clark for a 31-yard scoring strike and a 13-7 advantage following the missed PAT. The touchdown was set up when junior defensive end and All-American Fletcher Cox blocked a Wake Forest field goal.

The final points of the half resulted in a 33-yard Derek DePasquale field goal which put MSU up, 16-7.

In the second half, though, Wake Forest grabbed the early momentum when Tommy Bohanon closed the gap to 16-14 on a 1-yard plunge. However, it would be as close as the Demon Deacons would get.

Ballard made sure of that in the fourth quarter when he broke free for a 72-yard touchdown, the longest in MSU bowl history, to swell the lead to 23-14.

Wake would score again on a 46-yard field goal by Jimmy Newman, but from that point the MSU defense thwarted any comeback hopes by taking its play to another level.

Offensively, MSU outgained Wake, 382-287. Relf threw for 129 yards on 12-of-19 passing, while also rushing for another 64 yards en route to finishing his career as MSU's winningest quarterback (15-7).

The defense was led by the play of Cox and Corey Broomfield, who registered a career-best two tackles behind the line of scrimmage to go along with a team-high nine tackles. It was a unit that recorded six sacks, the most since having seven in a 47-35 home win against No. 3 Florida on Sept. 30, 2000.

Mississippi State 20
Northwestern 34

January 1, 2013 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

The No. 20 Northwestern Wildcats (10-3) downed the Mississippi State Bulldogs (9-5) 34-20 in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl.

Northwestern wasted no time getting on the board when Quentin Williams returned a Tyler Russell interception 29 yards just 47 seconds into the game.

Jeff Budzien added a pair of field goals on the Wildcats next two drives from 34 and 37 yards, respectively.

The Bulldog defense then stopped the Northwestern offense on back-to-back drives leading to MSU's first points of the day.

Devon Bell got the scoring going with a 27-yard field goal. After MSU forced a three-and-out, Russell connected with Arceto Clark for an 18-yard touchdown and sent State to the locker room only trailing by three.

Nickoe Whitley stopped Northwestern's first drive of the second half with the first of his two interceptions on the day. Three minutes later, Bell tied his career-long with a 47-yard field goal to square the game at 13 apiece.

The Wildcats quickly retook the lead with a six-play, 76-yard drive that only took 1:12 off the clock and then added another touchdown with 1:35 left in the third quarter to take 27-13 lead into the final stanza.

MSU tacked on another touchdown when Russell floated a pass to Malcolm Johnson in center of the endzone just 3:18 into the fourth quarter.

The MSU defense forced another three-and-out on Northwestern's next drive but, Russell's fourth interception of the day was returned 44 yards to the five yard line. The Wildcats punched in their final touchdown to secure the win.

Josh Robinson finished the game as State's leading rusher with 91 yards on seven carries. Junior LaDarius Perkins added 85 yards on 19 carries.

Clark finished with three catches for 36 yards and a touchdown, while Johnson hauled in two catches for 24 yards and a score. Chad Bumphis also grabbed three catches for 18 yards in his final game as a Bulldog.

Russell completed 12-of-28 for 106 yards, two touchdowns and four interceptions.

Mississippi State 44
Rice 7

December 31, 2013 • Liberty Bowl Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Mississippi State ended the year and its 2013 season and year with a fitting celebration Tuesday, ousting the Rice Owls 44-7 to claim victory in the 55th AutoZone Liberty Bowl. The margin of victory was the largest in any bowl game played thus far in 2013.

With the win, the Bulldogs secured their fourth-straight winning season and Dan Mullen earned the record for most bowl wins by any MSU coach ever, now 3-1 in four bowl appearances in his five seasons as the Bulldog mentor.

State dominated the game on both sides of the ball, with the defense holding Rice's top-15 national rushing attack to only 61 yards on the ground in the game while the Bulldog offense racked up 533 total yards on the other side of the ball.

After the Owls took an early 7-0 lead, the Bulldogs went on to score 44 unanswered points in the convincing win. Five different State players scored touchdowns in the contest.

State set school and Liberty Bowl records in the game. Sophomore quarterback Dak Prescott accounted for five touchdowns responsible for (a Liberty Bowl record) while throwing for 283 yards and three scores and rushing for two others. Junior receiver Jameon Lewis set the all-time MSU record for receiving yards in any game - regular or post season - with 220 yards on nine catches.

MSU ended 2013 on a flurry, winning consecutive overtime games at Arkansas and against arch rival Ole Miss at home to become bowl eligible and vault itself into Tuesday's contest in Memphis.

Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field

Capacity: 61,337

Head coach Dan Mullen and the Mississippi State Bulldogs return to the raucous atmosphere of Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field in 2014, when State will celebrate the 100-year anniversary of Scott Field at Davis Wade Stadium with an intoxicating seven-game home schedule.

Nineteen of the top 20 crowds in stadium history have come during Mullen's tenure as head coach of the Bulldogs.

Christened after Olympic sprinter Don Magruder Scott, one of State's first football superstars, the 100-year-old historic facility (the nation's second-oldest Division I-A campus football stadium) has undergone five renovation and expansion projects during its history.

Thanks to 30 consecutive home sellouts entering the 2014 season, more than $100 million in football projects have been initiated in the last few years. Of that figure, $75 million of it is for the nationally-praised 2014 Davis Wade expansion.

The latest addition of note at Mississippi State's Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field is an expansion and renovation completed in August 2014 which increased capacity to 61,337, provided additional premium seating, elevators, restrooms and concessions, and a completely new west side concourse. Construction began in August 2012.

The construction contract for the project was awarded to the Harrell Contracting Group of Jackson, Miss. Harrell won the construction project in a university sealed bid process.

The north end zone addition created a total of 8,815 new seats, which, factored with the loss of the previously existing bleacher seating in the north end zone, resulted in a net 6,255-seat increase. Included in those 8,815 seats were 7,076 grandstand seats, 1,155 Scoreboard Club seats, 236 loge seats, 22 traditional suites totaling approximately 288 seats and 60 field-level suite seats. Additionally, standing room availability and ADA-compliant seating were also included in the project.

Also included in the north end zone is a non-seated, field level premium area, The Gridiron, which provides club-like amenities to any season ticket holder who buys a membership regardless of that person's stadium seat location. The visiting team locker room was also relocated to the north end zone addition, allowing the gameday recruiting center to expand in its current location.

The north end also features a new high-definition video board similar in size to the one currently standing on the stadium's south end, which is among the largest in college athletics.

The west side renovation showcases a rebuilt concourse under the west stands, the addition of four high-capacity elevators, an increase in restroom and concession point of sale facilities and a brick facade that matches the new construction on the north. In 2014, fans see the number of elevators at Davis Wade Stadium more than double (from five to 12), the restroom fixture total nearly double (from 313 to 621), and permanent concession point of sale positions increase by over 40 percent (from 110 to 156).

For media, the project included a new television compound away from the stadium proper. The TV compound is now located west of the stadium, allowing network broadcast trucks to connect to stadium equipment via underground cable runs.

The renovation and expansion was funded by the sale of $68 million in bonds and $7 million in private giving. Private contributions for the stadium project were part of the Bulldog Club's Today. Tomorrow. Forever Athletics Facilities Initiative, which is completely independent of annual giving and priority seating donations.

Construction and renovation design for the Davis Wade Stadium expansion and renovation was handled by local architect LPK of Meridian, Miss., along with national sports consultants 360 Architecture of Kansas City. The design team engineered the north end zone facility to support future expansion of approximately 5,000 seats, including 22 additional suites and an upper deck.

The 2014 renovation and expansion came on the heels of installing $1.4 million LED ribbon boards in the summer of 2011. The project, funded by the Bulldog Club, is located in the upper deck facades on the east and west sides, and brings fans in-game graphics, scores, stats and other pertinent information to improve the game-day experience.

One of the most talked about features at Davis Wade, however, is one of college football's largest high-definition video boards, located in the south end zone of the stadium. The $6.1 million true HD board spans the roof of the Leo Seal M-Club Center in the south end zone at Scott Field. The board measures 152 feet wide by 135 feet, 6 inches tall, with a main HD screen 111 feet wide by 47 feet high. It is the second-largest board in the Southeastern Conference and the eighth largest nationally.

The last previous expansion came in the summer of 2000 and raised capacity to 55,082 with the addition of 50 skyboxes and 1,700 club-level seats. The expansion continued into the 2001 season with the addition of 7,000 upper-deck seats. The entire project, completed at a cost in excess of $30 million, was made possible, in large part, by a financial commitment from the late Floyd Davis Wade Sr., of Meridian, Miss., for whom the stadium itself is now named.

Earlier building efforts in 1936 and 1948 brought capacity at Scott Field to 35,000 seats and provided the basic concrete grandstand structure (35 years after the '48 expansion, the end zone seating structures were removed, lowering the capacity to 32,000 in 1983). But after 25 years, Scott Field was ready for another facelift and an expanded seating potential for the school's growing following.

A $7.2 million drive in 1986, spearheaded by former MSU athletic director Carl Maddox and an active group of university and community leaders, financed the addition of 9,000 seats to Scott Field's capacity without the use of appropriated state funding. A 5,500-seat upper deck, an additional 1,700 chairback seats that extend from the stadium's original structure, and another 1,000 chairback seats flanking the Bob Hartley Press Box on the second level were added to the west side. Two 1,700-seat sections were added to the east side stands to bring capacity to 40,656.

Other improvements to the stadium have also been made. In the summer of 1999, the Turman Fieldhouse on the south end of the stadium underwent many changes, including enhanced dressing rooms and a new recruiting lounge for Bulldog football prospects.

The third floor addition to the Turman Fieldhouse -- the Leo Seal M-Club -- houses a heritage room and game-day gathering place for former Bulldog athletes, and serves as one of the campus' more popular meeting places. The $1.4 million project, completed in 1990, was made possible through the generosity of MSU alumnus and former Bulldog football letterman Leo Seal Jr., who named the building in honor of his father, also a two-year football letterwinner at State.

Earning a reputation of being one of the nation's toughest places to play, the facility has been host to average attendances in excess of 55,000 the last five seasons. In fact, the last 10 years have seen the largest cumulative totals in the stadium's history.

During the 2010 campaign, Bulldog fans smashed nearly all stadium records that had been previously set. During the seven-game schedule, a total of 384,995 fans entered Davis Wade Stadium, smashing the 2009 record by over 8,000. The home campaign also saw a record average 54,999 fans a game while notching three of the stadium's top five crowds ever (Georgia, UAB, Arkansas). The home campaign witnessed the Bulldogs win at least five home games for the sixth time in school history.

In 2011, Mullen and his program watched as each game recorded a then top-15 all-time attendance mark at Davis Wade Stadium, including 57,871 against Alabama (second) and 56,924 vs. LSU (fourth). The 335,695 total fans to watch a game in Starkville was the highest ever for a six-game schedule at Davis Wade Stadium.

Two seasons ago in 2012, another record was set with 389,396 fans flocking to Scott Field for an average attendance of 55,628 per contest, including 57,831 against Tennessee - the third-largest crowd in school history.

State fans broke the school record for total attendance again in 2013 with 389,868 total fans, including a seven-game record average of 55,695. On Nov. 16, 2013, 57,211 people wrapped in Maroon and White attended the Alabama game, the fourth-largest crowd in school history.

Scott Field's playing surface, which hosted 16-straight home victories between 1998-2000, is lush Hybrid Bermuda Grass (Certified Tifway 419), complete with a brand-new underground drainage and irrigation system. The field is encircled by a holly-lined sideline fence and end zone landscaping.

In conjunction with the 100-year anniversary of Scott Field in 2014, MSU sold a school record for single-season ticket sales. As of June 2014, MSU sold 44,230 season tickets, breaking the old mark of 44,212 set in 2012. Included in that record-setting figure are 11,000 student tickets.

DAVIS WADE STADIUM EXPANSION AND RENOVATION

NORTH ENTRANCE

The new north end zone entrance to DWS is part of an expansion which takes stadium capacity from 55,000 to over 61,000. This expansion is aimed at offering more Bulldog fans opportunity to experience game day in Starkville.

THE GRIDIRON

Opening two hours before kickoff and available until the final whistle sounds, The Gridiron puts you in the north end zone on field level so you and your party can soak up all of the action from pregame warmups to a last-second score.

NORTH ENDZONE

Features "The State Level," a select area filled with 236 Loge Seats and 22 new Skyboxes. The area is an exclusive experience that allows Bulldog Club Donors to be fully entrenched in the environment of MSU football.

SCOREBOARD CLUB

1,000+ fans in the north end zone will enjoy locker service, a food & beverage area, chair-back seating, high definition televisions and cover from the occasional bad weather that can potentially impact your game-day experience.

TIMELINE HISTORY OF SCOTT FIELD

1914 – Mississippi A&M's football field moves to its current stadium location and is called the "New Athletic Field."

1920 – Student body adopts a resolution name the field Scott Field in honor of Don Scott, famed Olympic runner and Bulldog football standout from 1915-16.

1928 – Permanent seating for 3,000 fans is built on the west side of Scott Field at a cost of $15,000. In addition portable stands are placed on the east side of the field with a similar capacity.

1936 – Construction begins on concrete stands on the west side with Works Progress Administration labor. The new concrete facility will seat 8,000, while bleachers on the east side and in the end zone bring capacity to 20,000.

1948 – Scott Field is enlarged to 35,000 by increasing the west side concrete stands to 15,000 and the construction of 12,000 concrete seats on the east side of the stadium.

1983 – End zone seating structures are removed, reducing capacity to 32,000.

1986 – A $7.2 million expansion occurs, adding 9,000 seats to Scott Field's west side, including a 5,500-seat upper deck, 1,700 chairback seats extending from the stadium's original structure, and another 1,000 chairbacks flanking the press box. Two 1,700-seat sections are also added to the west side stands, bringing total capacity to 40,656.

1999 – Plans are announced for the largest expansion project in stadium history. A $30-million effort, backed largely by longtime MSU supporter Davis Wade, will add an estimated 10,500 seats and 50 luxury skyboxes, bringing total capacity to approximately 55,000 by the 2002 season. The new stadium, when completed, is renamed Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field.

2005 – Permanent end zone seating replaces temporary bleacher seating at the north end of the stadium, bringing official capacity to 55,082.

2012 - Construction begins on a $75-million expansion of the north end zone and the renovation of the west side concourse, bringing official capacity to 61,337 by the start of the 2014 season.

Mississippi State is a comprehensive doctoral-degree-granting institution offering a diverse student body a wide range of opportunities and challenges for learning and growth.

The largest university in the Magnolia State, MSU has a statewide enrollment of more than 21,000 students. and is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Calleges to award baccalaureate, masters, specialists and doctorate degrees.

Established in 1878 as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Mississippi, the university has traditional strengths in engineering and scientific agriculture but has evolved into a comprehensive institution with a diverse array of programs in teaching, research, and service.

The University began as The Agricultural and Mechanical College of the State of Mississippi, one of the national Land-Grant Colleges established after Congress had passed the Morrill Act in 1862. It was created by the Mississippi Legislature on February 28, 1878, to fulfill the mission of offering training in "agriculture, horticulture and the mechanical arts . . . without excluding other scientific and classical studies, including military tactics."

The College received its first students in the fall of 1880 in the presidency of Confederate General Stephen D. Lee. In 1887 Congress passed the Hatch Act, which provided for the establishment of the Agricultural Experiment Station in 1888. Two other pieces of federal legislation provided funds for extending the mission of the College: in 1914, the Smith-Lever Act called for "instruction in practical agriculture and home economics to persons not attendant or resident," thus creating the statewide effort which led to Extension offices in every county in the State; and, in 1917, the Smith-Hughes Act provided for the training of teachers in vocational education.

By 1932, when the Legislature renamed the College as Mississippi State College, it consisted of the Agricultural Experiment Station (1887), the College of Engineering (1902), the College of Agriculture (1903), the School of Industrial Pedagogy (1909), the School of General Science (1911), the College of Business and Industry (1915), the Mississippi Agricultural Extension Service (1915), and the Division of Continuing Education, (1919). Further, in 1926 the College had received its first accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

By 1958, when the Legislature again renamed the College, as Mississippi State University, the Office of Graduate Studies had been organized (1936), doctoral degree programs had begun (1951), the School of Forest Resources had been established (1954), and the College of Arts and Sciences had been created (1956).

The College of Architecture admitted its first students in 1973. The College of Veterinary Medicine admitted its first class in 1977, and the School of Accountancy was established in 1979.

Points Of Pride At MSU

- Mississippi State ranks among the top 100 institutions across the country in the number of bachelor's degrees awarded to African-Americans.
- Over the last decade, five MSU professors have been named Mississippi Professor of the Year by the National Council for Advance ment and Support of Education and the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.
- Recently cited for its service in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, MSU's student chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers is nationally ranked for overall excellence.

ACADEMICS AND STUDENT LIFE

Mississippi State students consistently earn honors such as the prestigious Harry S. Truman Scholarship, awarded for those who will enter public service, and, with 16 Truman Scholars to date, the university has been recognized as one of 38 Truman Honor Institution.

Recently initiated programs are providing opportunities to develop leadership potential and global study options.

The university's Global Leadership Continuum provides "cradle-to-CEO" programming designed to develop leadership across a "global" spectrum that begins with high school and continues through the university experience and into professional life. Included are the Young Guns Leadership Camp for rising high school seniors; the Day One Leadership Community for incoming freshmen, focusing on shared academic and service experiences; and the highly competitive Appalachian Leadership Honors Program for sophomores and juniors.

To complement these efforts, the university has launched a minor in leadership studies open to students in all majors. A university honor code adopted in 2007 institutionalizes a campus culture of integrity and personal responsibility in academic studies. Through the Global Leadership Program, students may experience significantly expanded study abroad opportunities.

Mississippi State concluded another successful athletic year in 2013-14. A brief look back at the highlights (clockwise from top left): Football won its third bowl game in four years, claiming the 2013 AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Women's basketball advanced to the Round of Eight in the Women's NIT. Brandon McBride won the 2014 Indoor and Outdoor NCAA Championships in the 800 meters and Erica Bougard finished second in pentathlon at the 2014 NCAA Indoor Championship. Men's tennis earned its fourth-straight, and 23rd overall, appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Baseball made its 34th NCAA Tournament trip. Softball advanced to its third-straight NCAA Tournament and won 39 games, the third most in program history. Men's golf qualified for its second-straight, and ninth overall, NCAA Regional. Ally McDonald helped Team USA win the 2014 Curtis Cup, played in the 2014 U.S. Women's Open and guided Mississippi State to a program-best sixth-place finish at the 2014 NCAA Championships.

Mississippi State University's athletic teams are called Bulldogs, a name earned and maintained over the decades by the tough, tenacious play of student-athletes wearing the Maroon and White. The official school mascot is an American Kennel Club registered English Bulldog, given the inherited title of 'Bully.'

As with most universities, Mississippi State University teams answered to different nicknames through the years. The first squads representing Mississippi A&M College were proud to be called Aggies. When the school officially became Mississippi State College in 1932, the nickname Maroons, for MSU's uniform color, gained prominence. Bulldogs became the official title for State teams in 1961, not long after State College was granted university status.

Yet references to school teams and athletes as Bulldogs actually go back to early in the century, and this nickname was used almost interchangeably with both Aggies and Maroons, since at least 1905.

On November 30 of that year, the A&M football team shut out their arch-rivals from the University of Mississippi 11-0 in Jackson, Miss. The campus newspaper, The Reflector, reported: "After the game, filled with that emotion that accompanies every great victory, there was nothing left for the cadets to do but to complete the great victory by showing sympathy for the dead athletic spirit of the University, by having a military funeral parade.

"A coffin was secured, decorated with University colors and a bulldog pup placed on top. It was then placed on the shoulders of a dozen cadets, and the procession started down Capitol Street, preceded by the brass band playing a very pathetic funeral march."

Other newspaper reports of the victory commented on the 'bulldog' style of play by the A&M eleven, and the Bulldog was soon publicly accepted as a school athletic symbol. Accounts of a 1926 pep rally in Meridian, Miss., had another bulldog parading with students.

Official Mascot In 1935

Use as an official game mascot began in 1935 when coach Major Ralph Sasse, on 'orders' from his team, went to Memphis, Tenn., to select a bulldog. Ptolemy, a gift of the Edgar Webster family, was chosen and the Bulldogs promptly defeated Alabama 20-7.

A litter-mate of Ptolemy became the first mascot called 'Bully' shortly after Sasse's team beat mighty Army 13-7 at West Point that same year - perhaps the greatest victory in MSU football history. But Bully I earned other fame the hard way, in 1939 when a campus bus cut short his career.

Days of campus mourning followed, as Bully lay in state in a glass coffin. A half-mile funeral procession accompanied by the Famous Maroon Band and three ROTC battalions went to Scott Field where Bully was buried under the bench at the 50-yard line. Even Life magazine covered the event. Other Bullys have since been buried by campus dorms, fraternity houses, and also at the football stadium.

For years Bully was a target for kidnappers, the last incident occurring prior to the 1974 State-Ole Miss game. The Bulldog team won anyway, 31-13. While early Bullys once roamed campus freely or lived in fraternities, today the official university mascot is housed at the School of Veterinary Medicine when not on duty at State home football games. For all their fierce appearance and reputation, today's mascot bulldogs are good-natured, friendly animals and favorites with children.

A student wearing a Bulldog suit, also answering to Bully, is part of the MSU cheerleading team and assists in stirring up State spirit at games and pep rallies.

The most unique and certainly the most resounding symbol of Mississippi State University tradition is the cowbell. Despite decades of attempts by opponents and authorities to banish it from scenes of competition, diehard State fans still celebrate Bulldog victories loudly and proudly with the distinctive sound of ringing cowbells.

The precise origin of the cowbell as a fixture of Mississippi State sports tradition remains unclear to this day. The best records have cowbells gradually introduced to the MSU sports scene in the late 1930s and early 1940s, coinciding with the 'golden age' of Mississippi State football success prior to World War II.

The most popular legend is that during a home football game between State and archrival Ole Miss, a jersey cow wandered onto the playing field. Mississippi State soundly whipped the Rebels that Saturday, and State College students immediately adopted the cow as a good luck charm.

Students are said to have continued bringing a cow to football games for a while, until the practice was eventually discontinued in favor of bringing just the cow's bell.

Whatever the origin, it is certain by the 1950s cowbells were common at MSU games, and by the 1960s were established as the special symbol of MSU. Ironically, the cowbell's popularity grew most rapidly during the long years when State football teams were rarely successful. Flaunting this anachronism from the 'aggie' days was a proud response by students and alumni to outsider scorn of the university's 'cow college' history.

In the 1960s two MSU professors, Earl W. Terrell and Ralph L. Reeves, obliged some students by welding handles on the bells so they could be rung with more convenience and authority. By 1963 the demand for these long-handled cowbells could not be filled by home workshops alone. So, at the suggestion of Reeves, the Student Association bought bells in bulk and the Industrial Education Club agreed to weld on handles. In 1964, the MSU Bookstore began marketing these cowbells with a portion of profits returning to these student organizations.

Today many styles of cowbells are available on campus and around Starkville, with the top-of-the-line being a heavy chrome-plated model with a full Bulldog figurine handle. But experts insist the best and loudest results are produced by a classic long-handled, bicycle-grip bell made of thinner and tightly-welded shells.

Cowbells decorate offices and homes of Mississippi State alumni, and are passed down through generations of Bulldog fans. But they were not heard at Southeastern Conference games - not legally, at least - since the 1974 adoption of a conference rule against 'artificial noisemakers' at football and basketball games. On a 9-1 vote, SEC schools ruled cowbells a disruption and banned them. The ban was lifted prior to the 2010 season.

The ban did little harm to the cowbell's popularity, or to prevent cowbells from being heard outside stadiums in which the Bulldogs are playing. They are now heard at non-conference football contests, as well as other sporting events on campus.

MAROON & WHITE

Maroon and White are the distinctive colors of Mississippi State University athletic teams, dating back over a century to the very first football game ever played by the school's student-athletes.

On November 15, 1895, the first Mississippi A&M football team was preparing for a road trip to Jackson, Tenn., to play Southern Baptist University (now called Union University) the following day. Since every college was supposed to have its own uniform colors, the A&M student body requested that the school's team select a suitable combination.

Considering this choice to be an honor, the inaugural State team gave the privilege to team captain W.M. Matthews. Accounts report that without hesitation Matthews chose Maroon and White.

In the 112 years since, every Mississippi State athlete has donned the Maroon and White in some sort of combination. Often a shade of gray has been added to the scheme, such as for the numerals. Briefly in the 1980s, the men's and women's basketball teams wore all-gray uniforms with maroon and white trim, while football has at times sported silver game pants, and baseball will often wear all gray road outfits.

Only once has an MSU team appeared in any other color combination. In 1938, football coach Spike Nelson secretly had cardinal and gold uniforms made for State, a selection that did not sit well with the team or the college at the first game. Neither the uniforms nor Nelson were back for the next season.

MSU ALMA MATER

In the heart of Mississippi, Made by none but God's own hands,
Stately in her natural splendor, Our Alma Mater proudly stands.
Mississippi State, we love you; Fondest memories cling to thee,
Life shall bear thy spirit ever; Loyal friends we'll always be.

CHORUS:
Maroon and White! Maroon and White!
Of thee with joy we sing; Thy colors bright,
our souls delight; With praise our voices ring.

❖ ❖ ❖ ❖ ❖ ❖ ❖

"HAIL STATE"

Hail dear ole State! Fight for that victory today.
Hit that line and tote that ball, Cross the goal before you fall!
And then we'll yell, yell, yell, yell!
For dear ole State we'll yell like H-E-L-L!
Fight for Mis-sis-sip-pi State.
Win the game today!

Dr. Mark Keenum

University President

Dr. Mark Everett Keenum became Mississippi State's 19th president Jan. 5, 2009, following a distinguished public service career.

Despite difficult economic times, Dr. Keenum guided Mississippi State to new heights during his first five years in office. His quick action to address budget shortfalls following the recession that began in 2008 put the university in position to meet those challenges and maintain the highest level of academic excellence. Since then, the university has experienced record enrollment growth to more than 20,000 students. The freshman class of fall 2013 was not only the largest in university history, but also reported the highest average ACT scores in university history. During 2011-12, Mississippi State awarded more than 4,000 degrees at all levels for the first time in its history, and followed that with more than 4,200 degrees in 2012-13.

The campus has expanded and improved since 2009 with the addition of three new residence halls, the Mize Pavilion, a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility, and the Leo W. Seal Jr. Football Complex. A major renovation of historic Lee Hall is to be complete in spring 2014 and a major expansion of Davis Wade Stadium will be completed by August 2014. Construction of a new classroom building with built-in parking got under way in January 2014.

Since 2009, fundraising has reached all-time record levels, with private giving exceeding $80 million a year in fiscal years 2011, 2012, and 2013. In fall 2013, the university formally announced Infinite Impact: the Campaign for Mississippi State, which had been in its quiet phase for three years, with a goal of $600 million by 2018. By January 2014, the campaign total had surpassed $380 million. Dr. Keenum has also been instrumental in expanding the MSU Promise Program, which provides need-based scholarship assistance to Mississippi students whose families have limited financial means. Through the Sonny Montgomery Center for America's Veterans, he has also led initiatives to make Mississippi State one of the most veteran-friendly universities in the nation.

Mississippi State has strengthened its role as the flagship research university in the state. The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching classified MSU as a university with "very high research activity," the only such designation in Mississippi. Dr. Keenum travels frequently to Washington, D.C., meeting with Congressional leaders and federal agency heads to pursue research opportunities and broaden the university's influence on the national level. He has also worked closely with state leaders in support of higher education in Mississippi.

Keenum serves as vice-chairman of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' Commission on Colleges' Executive Council. SACS-COC is the recognized regional accrediting body in the 11 U.S. Southern states (Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia) and in Latin America for those institutions of higher education that award associate, baccalaureate, master's or doctoral degrees.

He also is a member of the American Public Land-Grant Universities Board of Directors. Based in Washington, D.C., the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU) is a research and advocacy organization of public research universities, land-grant institutions, and state university systems with member campuses in all 50 states, U.S. territories and the District of Columbia.

A graduate of Mississippi State University with degrees in agricultural economics, Dr. Keenum began his career at MSU as a faculty member with the Extension Service and the Department of Agricultural Economics. He went on to serve as chief of staff to U.S. Senator Thad Cochran in Washington, DC and was Under Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture prior to returning home to Mississippi State.

He graduated from Corinth (MS) High School and earned an associate of arts degree from Northeast Mississippi Community College in Booneville and was a member of the Northeast Tigers football team.

Dr. Keenum is married to the former Rhonda Newman of Booneville, also an MSU graduate. They have four children: Rett, Mary Phillips, Katie and Torie.

Scott Stricklin

Director of Athletics

Beginning his third decade of experience in intercollegiate athletics, Scott Stricklin has built a wave of momentum within the Mississippi State fan base during his tenure as the director of athletics.

From his first day on the job as Mississippi State's Athletic Director in May 2010, Stricklin, integrating the department's three foundations of focus on student-athletes, possessing great integrity and aggressively promoting Mississippi State University, has overseen a stretch in which the Bulldogs enjoyed both on and off the field successes unparalleled in more than a decade.

In the midst of 30-consecutive sellouts at Davis Wade Stadium, and a $100 million investment in football facilities, Coach Dan Mullen's football team has played in a school-record, four-consecutive bowl games. The sports of tennis baseball, softball, men's and women's golf and track and field have each excelled and advanced to NCAA postseason play under Stricklin's guidance. During the 2013-14 academic year, 11 Mississippi State sports advanced to NCAA postseason play, with seven earning top 25 rankings during the season. The year was capped by Brandon McBride winning the 800-meter run at the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships in Oregon. This came one year after the baseball team played for the national championship in Omaha.

In the classroom, Bulldog student-athletes continue to excel. In the 2013-14 academic year, Mississippi State's men and women athletes posted a combined GPA of 2.90. In spring 2014, women's sports posted an overall GPA of 3.15, with the women's tennis team posting a GPA of 3.70.

Also in 2014, Bulldog student-athletes again excelled in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, with all 16 sports far exceeding the minimum standard.

Stricklin has overseen record fundraising for Bulldog Athletics, which has produced new facilities such as the $11.7 million Mize Pavilion at Humphrey Coliseum, the $25 million Leo W. Seal Jr. Football Complex, as well as $75 million in expansion and upgrades to Davis Wade Stadium that is set for completion for the season opener against Southern Miss.

The Davis Wade Stadium expansion and renovation pushes capacity to 61,337, making it the largest on campus football stadium in the state of Mississippi. In addition to new premium seating options, a new brick facade and updated west concourse, complete with renovated restrooms and concessions, now greets fans attending games at historic Scott Field, which celebrates its 100th season of existence this year.

In addition to interacting with Bulldog fans through social media and personal interactions, Stricklin has also emerged as a regional and national leader in college athletics. He serves as chair of the SEC's Working Group on Fan Experience, and is also the SEC's representative on the NCAA Division I Leadership Council.

Stricklin certainly wasn't a stranger to the Bulldog family or college athletics when he took over the reins at State in 2010.

A 1992 graduate of Mississippi State, the Jackson, Miss., native's resume is highlighted by 25 years of experience on the collegiate level in various capacities at five different universities. In the two years prior to becoming athletic director, he served as Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at his alma mater, overseeing fundraising, football and men's basketball scheduling, managing MSU's all-sport agreement with Adidas, facility planning, and serving as the administrative sport liaison for men's basketball and softball.

It was those types of day-to-day tasks that prepared the personable Stricklin to take over the top seat in the Mississippi State athletic department.

Yet it's a journey that started during his formative days as a dedicated and tireless worker in the Mississippi State media relations department that's led to his highly-respected career coming full circle.

Prior to graduating, Stricklin's stint in the MSU media relations office included three seasons (1990-92) as the media contact for the nationally-renown baseball program. Upon graduation, he was named assistant media relations director at his alma mater.

He continued his climb up the ladder of success when he was named Associate Media Relations Director at Auburn, where he served from 1993-98. In 1998, Stricklin left Auburn to become Assistant Athletics Director at Tulane, where he served as the primary media contact for the Green Wave's 1998 12-0 football team. Next came a four-year run in the Big 12 Conference at Baylor (1999-2003) as Assistant AD for Communications and Marketing.

In 2003, Stricklin returned to the Southeastern Conference at Kentucky and spent five seasons as the Associate AD for Media Relations, where he oversaw the day-to-day publicity of the tradition-rich Wildcat basketball program. It was his last stop before returning to Mississippi State in the spring of 2008.

Stricklin, 44, is married to the former Anne Howell, the youngest daughter of Basketball Hall of Fame member Bailey Howell. The couple has two daughters, Abby and Sophie.

PRESEASON MEDIA CONFERENCE

Mississippi State will hold its annual preseason media conference during fall camp on the third floor of the Leo Seal Jr. Football Complex. Head coach Dan Mullen will address the media and take questions, along with the coordinators. Selected players will be available following the coaches. Contact the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office for specific player requests.

DAN MULLEN INTERVIEWS

All interviews with head coach Dan Mullen should be directed through the MSU Athletic Media Relations office. Please contact Bill Martin at 662-325-0967 or via email to arrange an interview time.

Coach Mullen has three scheduled interview opportunities during game-week and media representatives are encouraged to make use of these question-and-answer situations. Mullen is also generally available after practice, but media members must coordinate those opportunities through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office.

MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE (MSU - Begins Aug. 26)

Coach Mullen will conduct a weekly media conference each Monday prior to an MSU game. The conference will be conducted at the Leo Seal Jr. Football Complex. Coach Mullen's press conference begins at 1:00 p.m. (CT). Selected players will be available following Mullen's presentation (at approximately 1:30 p.m.). To request specific players, media members must contact the media relations office by 3:00 p.m. the Sunday preceding each respective media conference.

WEDNESDAY TELECONFERENCE (SEC - Begins Aug. 28)

Coach Mullen will join the league's other 13 coaches on the SEC's Wednesday teleconference. Coach Mullen's 10-minute segment is scheduled from 11:50 a.m.-12 p.m. (CT). The teleconference phone number can be obtained by calling the SEC or the MSU Media Relations Office. The SEC provides an archived copy of the teleconference at www.secsports.com for media replay.

WEEKLY PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Interviews with players are encouraged; however, all interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Media Relations Office. This policy facilitates the orderly scheduling and completion of the desired interview. During game week, all player interviews need to be arranged at least 24 hours in advance. Please coordinate all requests with the MSU Athletic Media Relations office.

No true freshmen or transfers will be available to media until at least after the season-opening game.

MSU Athletic Media Relations will not supply the media home or cellular telephone numbers for Bulldog student-athletes. Likewise, training room, locker room and apartment/dormitory areas are considered private player areas and are off-limits to the media.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Select preseason practices will be open to media and the public, including videographers and photographers. All media members are encouraged to gather all practice footage needed at these open practice sessions. Unless otherwise announced, all other practice times will be closed to the media.

On occasion, practice footage will be available via FTP.

Contact the MSU Media Relations office to arrange any requests of assistant coaches.

MSU ON THE INTERNET

Visit the official Mississippi State Athletics home page on the Internet at HailState.com. The site provides updated statistics, game notes and other pertinent football information to visitors as well as live statistics and audio links for all of MSU's football games.

An abbreviated transcription of Coach Mullen's Monday press conference each week is available on MSU's athletic website. The site carries Mullen's Monday press conference live for media members who subscribe to the site and cannot attend the conference in person. The website also covers selected preseason and game-week football practices, including post-practice interviews with the Bulldogs' head coach.

The site also offers up-to-date information on all of State's 16 varsity sports, including schedules and results, player and coach biographies as well as the latest news from the Mississippi State athletic program. Links to the NCAA, the Southeastern Conference and the other 13 SEC schools are also provided.

MEDIA WILL CALL

A media will call window will be operated on game days at the Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field Ticket Office (south end zone) for the distribution of credentials which have not been mailed. Proper ID will be required.

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of season and individual-game parking spaces reserved for the media are available near Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. Requests for media parking passes should be specified with credential requests. Due to space limitations, no motorhomes, campers or oversized vehicles will be permitted in media parking. Parking pass requests for satellite trucks should be made at least one week in advance.

REAL-TIME INTERNET POLICY

Mississippi State retains the rights to the distribution of play-by-play, drive-by-drive, statistical material and photographs of Mississippi State football during and following game action, just as it retains the rights to the video and audio description of game action. All rights to the dissemination of audio, video and real-time material is granted on a contractual basis only. Failure to abide by these restrictions may result in revocation of press credentials.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Arrangements for media credentials for Mississippi State's seven home football games in 2014 must be made through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office. Requests by accredited media members should be made through the SportsSystems online credentialing system. The system will go live at the end of July. Please contact the MSU Athletic Media Relations office for any further questions.

Priority for the issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers, radio stations and television stations which cover MSU football on a regular basis. Due to space limitations, weekly publications, non-broadcasting radio representatives and online services may not be granted credentials. Student publications, radio stations and websites that do not regularly cover MSU or its opponent, will be limited to one working media credential and/or one sideline photo pass, if applicable. Other credential requests will be filled on a space-available basis. Non-working spouses, dates, relatives, non-workers and anyone 16 years of age or younger are not permitted in the press box. Media credential holders who violate this policy risk forfeiture of future credentials. Media credentials must be requested at least 72 hours prior to the requested game.

Media credential holders in the press box who are not actively covering the game, or credential wearers on the sideline who are not on assignment, will be asked to leave those respective areas. Press box or sideline security will be contacted should the credential wearer not comply. Credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately, and news organizations who allow credentials to fall into improper hands will have the credentials revoked for the remainder of the year or the succeeding year, at the university's discretion.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

MSU follows the guidelines established by the NCAA Communications Committee and the SEC regarding sideline control to insure the sideline is a working media area. The following guidelines are adhered to:

1) Each photographer is required to wear a photo vest.

3) After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area, on the playing field, or in the 12-foot area between the photo limit line and sideline.

4) In accordance with NCAA policies, no freelance photographers will be credentialed.

5) Cutline writers, messengers and equipment carriers are not permitted in the sideline photo vest area. Photo assistants or others holding a "sideline" pass must remain out of the photo area immediately adjacent to the playing field. This will insure that photographers/videographers have the appropriate working area.

6) Tripods are not permitted in the sideline photo vest area. Monopods are permissible.

7) The areas behind the team benches are considered bench areas and are to be used only for the passage between the north and south sidelines. This area may not be used as a photo zone.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Mississippi State officials will recognize the NCAA's 10-minute cooling-off period following each MSU game this season, home and away. Head Coach Dan Mullen and selected players will be available for postgame interview purposes following each game on the second floor of the Seal M-Club Center at the south end of Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. MSU players may not be approached on the field following games for interviews.

Mullen's portion of the press conference may also be viewed in the press box on the MSU TV Center channel on press box television monitors.

The visiting head coach and players will be available following the cooling-off period near the new visitors locker room in the north end zone. This media opportunity will be coordinated by the visiting SID and Mississippi State Media Relations personnel.

The Robert M. Hartley Press Box, named for longtime Mississippi State Sports Information Director and administrator Bob Hartley, is located on the 200 level of the west side of Davis Wade Stadium. To access the press box, enter Gate 5 on the west side of Davis Wade Stadium and take the media elevator to Level 2.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

MSU provides ample work space in the 144-seat Robert M. Hartley Press Box for members of the print media as well as booth accommodations for radio networks and originating telecasts. Postgame work space is available in both the open-air seating area of the press box or in the climate-controlled work area adjacent to the seating area.

STATISTICS

Complete individual and team stats, play-by-play and postgame quotes will be available to the media following each game. One hour prior to kickoff, media packets containing a game program, flipcard, updated stats and game notes will be distributed in the media working area.

An internal public address system will provide updated notes and information during the game. A postgame fax service is also available upon request.

TELEPHONES

A limited number of telephones are available for media use in the press box on a first-come, first-served basis. Private lines are recommended for those working under tight deadlines and may be ordered through BellSouth (1-800-622-0644 [out of state] or 662-557-6000 [in Mississippi]). Instruct BellSouth personnel to install the line in the press box at Scott Field, B.S. Hood Drive, on the MSU campus.

Please notify the Media Relations office when ordering private lines so that phone line installation and seat location can be coordinated.

ETHERNET/WIRELESS CONNECTIVITY

A limited number of Ethernet connections are available for photographic transmission in the climate-controlled area of the press box. These connections are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis to photographers requesting the service. All Ethernet lines are NOT reserved by any media entity and may be shared when not in use.

The press box is equipped with wireless internet access. To gain access to the wireless internet, media members should look for the password posted around the press box.

MEALS

A pregame meal is served in the Robert M. Hartley Press Box beginning approximately two hours before kickoff with a light snack available in the press box at halftime. A stub on your credential, or a season pass is required for the pre-game meal.

CollegePressBox.com

CollegePressBox.com serves as a one-stop shot for all needs regarding college football.

Members can access team headshots and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or by applying for password by sending an email to password@collegepressbox.com.

BULLDOG RADIO/TELEVISION

All 12 of Mississippi State's regular-season football games will be carried live on the MSU Football Radio Network, a product of Learfield Sports.

The trio of Jim Ellis (play-by-play), Matt Wyatt (analyst) and John Correro (sideline) return for their fourth season together, but their experience in the booth is far longer than just four years.

For Ellis and Correro, a former MSU quarterback, it's their 36th season with MSU football, while Wyatt, also a former Bulldog quarterback, joined the broadcast in 2011.

Wyatt and Bart Gregory also host a pre- and post-game show each Saturday there's a game.

Ellis will also return as host of MSU DawgTalk, a weekly call-in radio show with sixth-year Bulldogs' coach Dan Mullen that airs each Thursday from Dawg House Sports Grill in downtown Starkville.
